

METZ BUILDING BADLY DAMAGED BY HIGH WIND

UNKNOWN WOMAN HAD A NARROW ESCAPE FROM FALLING BRICK WALLS.

MANY TREES BLOWN DOWN

Frad Brothers' Big Glass Display Case Demolished—Many Hats and Umbrellas Destroyed.

The high wind of Saturday did considerable damage about the city. Many trees were blown down, including one in the court house yard, on the south side, and chimneys were damaged quite extensively over town.

Possibly the greatest damage was to Chas. C. Metz's new block, on South Third street, the greater part of the front wall of which was blown out. A woman, whose name could not be learned, narrowly escaped death under the falling wall, for when she was but about twenty-five feet away from the structure, after passing in front of it on the side walk, the bricks came crashing to the street below, carrying with them the frames of a number of the windows in the east wall.

The wall which gave way is two stories high and 90 feet in length. About 80 feet of this wall of the second story, not yet having a roof over it, was caught by the stiff gale, falling in two sections. The frames of eight windows were demolished in the mass of falling brick.

Frad Brothers' big display case in front of their place of business on South Third street, was blown over and the glass broken out of all four sides.

The amusing spectacles of flying headgear were also very plentiful, while persons who clung affectionately to umbrellas, to protect themselves from the mist and rain, were frequently seen trying to turn them right side out.

It is believed that considerable damage was done by the high wind in the outskirts of the city.

METCALF SENT TO INVESTIGATE

Quite a Tempest Stirred Up Over Treatment of Japs.

THE SITUATION IS DELICATE

President Dispatches Member of His Cabinet to San Francisco to Get the Facts About Shutting Out the Little Japs from White Schools—Will Enforce Treaty Obligations.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Victor H. Metcalf, secretary of the department of commerce and labor, was directed by the president to go to San Francisco and make a thorough investigation of the charges as to discrimination against the Japanese in that city. Quite a serious difficulty seems to have been precipitated by the action of the school authorities in San Francisco segregating Japanese children from white schools and ordering them to the schools set apart for Chinese, negroes and Indians.

The inquiries to be instituted by Mr. Metcalf are supplemental to the steps taken in San Francisco by direction of the department of justice to compel the authorities to receive Japanese pupils. Such information as the United States district attorney at San Francisco may furnish will be made use of in connection with that secured by Mr. Metcalf in any further steps that may be taken by the United States government.

President Roosevelt is anxious to obtain at first hand from a cabinet officer who is acquainted with local conditions in San Francisco full information affecting every phase of the subject. The president feels that effort within the power of the administration should be exerted to see that treaty rights claimed by the Japanese are respected.

The determination to send Secretary Metcalf to San Francisco is one of the results of the request made by Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, at a conference with Secretary Root in behalf of his government, that the Japanese subjects in California be accorded their full rights under the treaty of 1894, including also the right of children to attend the public schools.

It is hardly likely that any report from Mr. Metcalf will be available before the president leaves on his Panama trip, although he may send some of his information by telegraph soon after he arrives at San Francisco. It is hoped that the expressed desire of the administration to secure the treaty rights of the Japanese will tend to allay the anti-American feeling in Japan until the whole matter is diplomatically adjusted.

Secretary Metcalf, if he finds it necessary, will communicate with Governor Pardee, the mayor of San Francisco and with the school board. He also will consult the Japanese consular officers in San Francisco.

Incidental to the inquiry into the school question Mr. Metcalf will pay some attention to the charges made by Count Aoki to Secretary Root that Japanese restaurant keepers in San Francisco have suffered indignities.

Japanese restaurant keepers in San Francisco have suffered as well as Japanese school children, according to reports received by the Japanese ambassador from Japanese consular officers in that city. Several reports declare a boycott was inaugurated against Japanese restaurants, that agents were posted to prevent patrons entering such restaurants and in several instances windows were broken, according to Japanese officials.

These cases were brought to the attention of Secretary Root by Viscount Aoki, who says he does so with great reluctance. When asked if complaints reached him in any other part of California outside of San Francisco or from any other Pacific coast states, Viscount Aoki replied that all the trouble has been confined to the one city. The ambassador assured his government again in his reports to Tokyo that the outbreak against the Japanese in San Francisco is purely local.

A cabinet member said the general opinion of the cabinet is that the situation is exceedingly grave and will require the most delicate treatment to prevent an open rupture. The president is doing all in his power to show the Japanese that there is no general feeling against the race and expressed gratification when he learned through Ambassador Aoki that the Japanese press is for the most part attempting to check feeling against Americans.

Jap Middy Incident.

Tokyo, Oct. 27.—The allegation that the retirement of the Japanese midshipman, Asahi Kitigaki, from the naval academy at Annapolis was due to the request of the Japanese embassy at Washington, is deemed here to be impossible, as the Japanese government has carefully avoided anything likely to provoke the United States. M. Kitigaki's parents are without word from him, but it is believed his retirement was in no way connected with the situation at San Francisco. It was announced from Washington Oct. 23 that, according to information given out at the navy department the sole reason for the resignation of Kitigaki, who is a son of Baron Kitigaki of the imperial privy council, was deficiency in studies.

TEN PEOPLE FATALLY HURT BY EXPLOSION OF BOMB IN CUSTOM HOUSE.

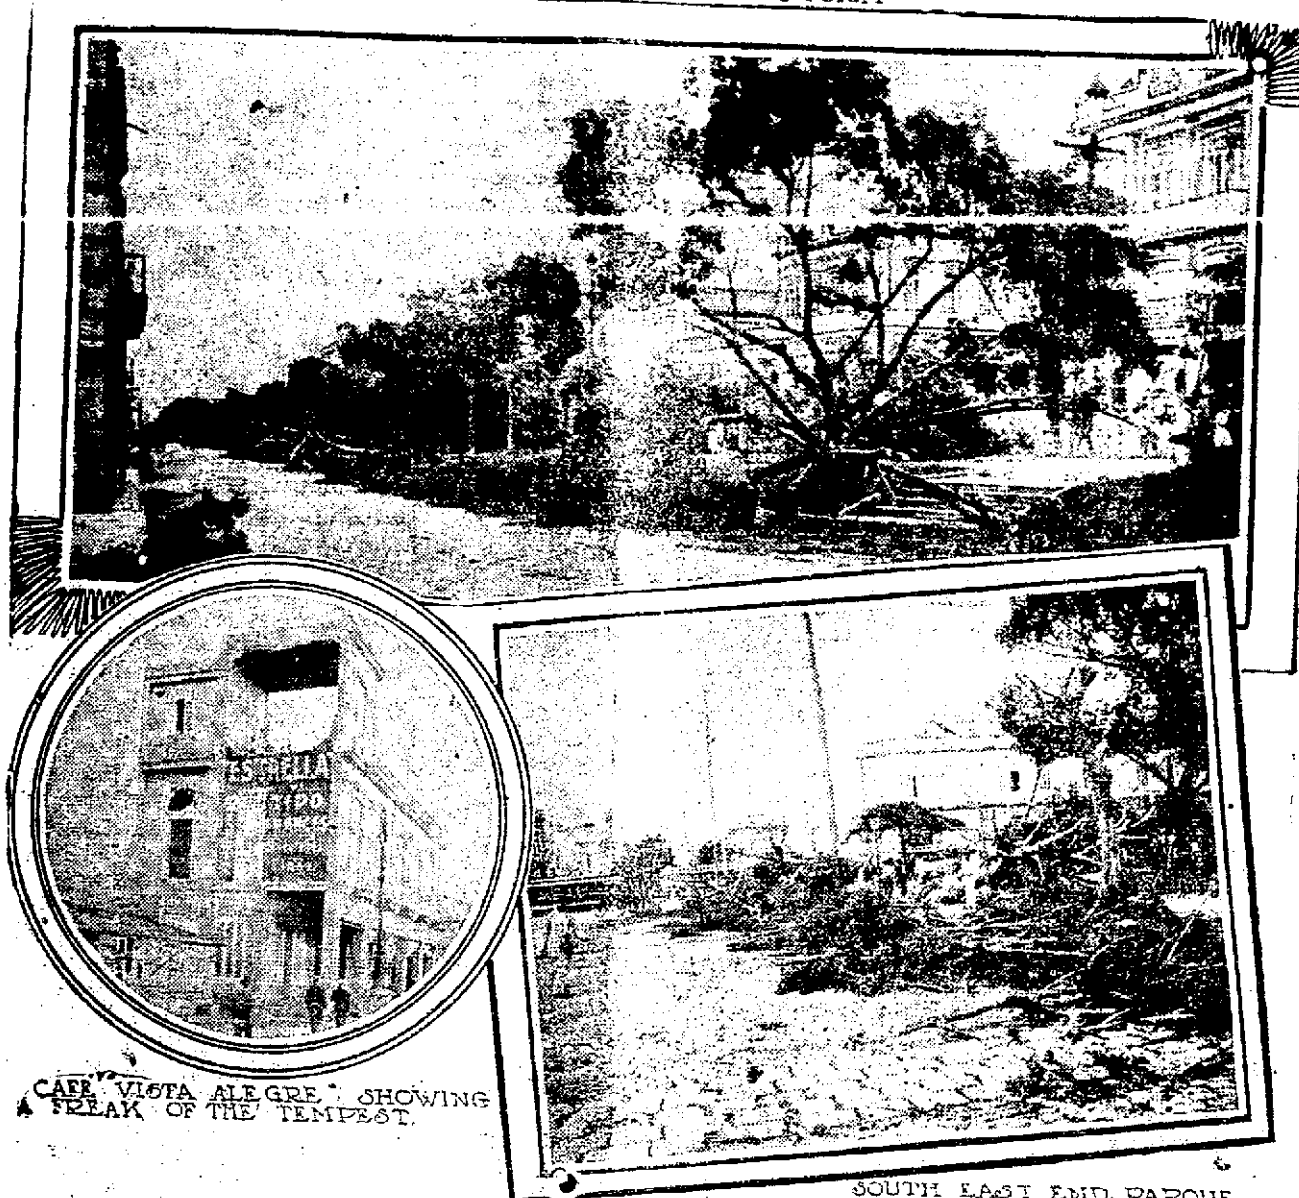

Bomb Thrown at Cashier, Who Escaped, But Others in Building Were Mangled.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 27.—In a bold raid today on the custom house, in which they employed a bomb to assist them in wrecking the place, revolutionists made away with about 386,000 roubles. (A rouble is about 60 cents). A bomb was thrown at the cashier. He escaped, fortunately, but in the confusion the robbers were able to get away with the money.

Ten persons were mortally wounded in the explosion of the bomb.

LOOKING UP THE PRADO AFTER THE STORM

CAP. VISTA ALLEGRE, SHOWING A RELAX OF THE TEMPEST.

SOUTH EAST END, PARQUE CENTRAL AFTER CYCLONE.

HAVANA, Oct. 27.—Governor Magon thinks that the hurricane was not altogether an ill wind. He has a theory that it blew away the mosquitoes and checked the yellow fever. The fact is that not so many of the pests have been noticeable in Havana and fever cases have dwindled to two. No new ones were reported today, and the doctors found but two suspicious cases. It is understood that the amount of the English claims filed for damage in the revolution amount to $400,000. The Spanish are $600,000, while the French German and American are trifling.

TOLEDO ICE MEN ARE FIGHTING EXECUTION OF COURT'S SENTENCE

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 27.—Crushed by the decision of the circuit court which sustained the common pleas court in all important particulars of the Valentine law, the ice trust men were remanded back to the common pleas court for execution of the sentence of six months' imprisonment and a fine of $2500 each. Their lawyers availed themselves of a peculiar statute by which the trial court has authority to grant a stay of execution of sentence in such cases for thirty days or less, pending the appeal on error to the supreme court from the decision of the circuit. This application was taken before Judge Julian H. Tylor, who has the criminal docket this term, and the judge, considering that the law was mandatory and gave him no

SUPT. F. A. BOUTELLE HAS RESIGNED TO ACCEPT POSITION ON PACIFIC COAST

Mr. F. A. Boutelle who for the past three years has been superintendent of transportation of the Newark traction lines, having come to Newark under the administration of former General Manager J. R. Harrigan, has just handed his resignation to General

SUPT. F. A. BOUTELLE.

Manager W. A. Gibbs, to take effect fully investigating Mr. Boutelle's way of doing things. His management of the lines has been successful in the field to accept a flattering offer from the Pacific coast. He will become superintendent of transportation of the Puget Sound Electric Railway company and Tacoma Railway and Power company, with headquarters in Tacoma, Wash. The road is 150 miles in length and touches a number of important points in the northwest, among them the great and growing city of Seattle.

This road, which will be managed by Mr. Boutelle, is one of about forty traction properties held by a large choice, granted a thirty day suspension.

It will be a race for liberty now between time and the preparation of pleadings toward a stay of execution of sentence from the supreme court.

First application must be made for permission to file a petition in error in the supreme court. When this is granted the petition in error must be prepared and filed. Then the supreme court can issue a stay of execution of sentence.

DAYTON'S NEW MAYOR.

Council appropriated $2000 for a search for the body of Mayor Snyder, who was drowned in White River, Canada.

LARGEST SUM

Ever Awarded in an American Court is Given Mrs. Sanford.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 27.—Henry Sanford, son of Samuel Sanford, dean of Yale School of Music, grandson of Henry Sanford, late president of the Adams Express Company, stands in a fair way to have to pay $80,000 outright in alimony to his young wife, who is suing for divorce. The referee in the case has given his decision in favor of $80,000, and now if the superior court sustains the judgment he will have to pay the alimony. It is the largest sum in alimony ever awarded in any American court.

RAILWAY MEN ARE FOR ASHBROOK

Legislative Representative of B. R. T. Send Mr. Snyder's Record to Denison Employees.

Denison, O., Oct. 27.—A letter has been received here from H. R. Fuller, National Trade Union Representative of the B. R. T., setting forth the position in Congress of the present member from this district, Hon. M. L. Stager, pertaining to the measures before Congress in which railroad men are interested.

The letter was received by the local secretary of the Brotherhood here and by him was given out for publication. It has aroused much interest among the large number of railroad men of this railroad center, because it distinctly contradicts the deceptive claims that have been made by Mr. Stager and his friends, and shows how the congressman completely failed to keep the promises he made to railroad men here when he was a candidate two years ago. Instead of being a friend of railroad men as he promised, this letter from the official representative of the B. R. T. shows that he failed to support the measures that the railroad men desired to have passed by Congress, and that he ignored the official head of the organization by refusing to answer his letters.

The large number of railroad men at this place makes the letter of Mr. Fuller have special significance in the Congressional campaign. The majority given for Snyder two years ago will now be cast for Ashbrook.

KAISER IS FRIENDLY.

TRUCK FARMS NEEDED.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Truck and poultry farms are wanted at Panama, according to a report of Consul Kellogg at Colon. He says the supply of vegetables on the isthmus does not meet the demand. MURDER

Supposed to Have Preceded This Fire in Kansas City Today.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 27.—Until Sayamas, a Mexican packing house laborer, was burned to death and two other Mexicans are believed to be dead in a fire which destroyed a two story building in the Armourdale packing house district today. Twenty-eight negroes and Mexicans occupied the structure as sleeping quarters. The property loss is $10,000.

Murder is supposed to have preceded the fire. Sayamas' body shows what appears to be a knife cut from the shoulder to the left side, the heart being exposed. A negro informed the police that the Mexicans were fighting during the night. No arrests have been made.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 27.—Edward Jordan, an insurance man, and Leon Whydbee, a grocery clerk, roommates, were found dead in bed this morning. They accidentally turned on a gas jet.

SECY. METCALF IS TO INVESTIGATE

Washington, Oct. 27.—Secretary of Commerce and Labor Metcalf, who will investigate for the President the charge that the Japanese children are turned from San Francisco schools, left Washington this afternoon for that city, arriving there next Wednesday. MAN IS PAINFULLY INJURED

Jerry Stein, a former employee of the Glick clothing store and Roe Emerson clothing store, sustained dangerous and painful injuries Friday night by jumping from a second story window of a house on South Third street.

The man had been friends during the earlier part of the evening and went to his house, just below the railroad crossing. After a time, a passerby discovered the man lying in the alley under an open window of the house. Bowers and Criss Bros. ambulance was sent for, but the man refused to ride in it. He was taken into the house and Dr. S. D. McClure was called. It developed that Stein in jumping from the window had broken his left wrist and sustained a bad cut on the head, aside from severe bruises about the back. The attending physician stated that it was not possible to tell as yet what may develop from the severe injury to the man's head.

An Advocate reporter who was on the scene asked Stein why he did it. The injured man replied that he did not know, only he "just got nutty in the head" and jumped out.

LOCAL ELECTIONS IN OHIO IN '07

CAMPAIGN THIS YEAR UNLIKE ANY OTHER IN STATE'S HISTORY.

War On Obnoxious Billboards—First Conviction for Hazing—Deaf and Dumb Report—Burning Leaves.

Columbus, O., Oct. 27.—After Bryan, Taft—and the campaign of 1906 rushes on to its close. It is the most peculiar campaign ever witnessed in Ohio. Whether it is an augury of the political movements of the future only those who live to see the evolution of each passing year can know—as far as they go. But to the casual observer of the present, the apathy and uncertainty of the day furnish a peg on which to hang predictions with absolute assurance that they will be worth remembering the day after. The registration in the larger cities falls short of last year quite a figure. There has been less stump oratory than ever was known before. These are but incidents—not indications. The Democrats had Bryan for their big enthraller. The Republicans have had Fairbanks and Shaw and Speaker Cannon, and will wind up with Taft. All the rest of the oratorical work was left to home orators, of which there is no paucity in Ohio. It is called an off-year—and it may be. At any rate, it will be "fall off" after November 6 until 1908, for there will be no state campaign next year. In 1907 there will be only local elections.

A general war on flaming billboards is to be begun by the W. C. T. U. generally under a new Ohio law. At the last meeting of the legislature Senator Oren Hypes of Springfield put through a bill aimed to put out of existence all billboard work that could be construed as inflammatory or obscene. Mrs. J. Frank Smith of Columbus, formerly of Mt. Vernon, is one of the leaders of the movement. She would not discuss the methods the association would use. Recently the State W. C. T. U. meeting at Marion declared against obscenity and sensationalism on billboards.

What was said to be the first conviction under Ohio's new anti-hazing law enacted last winter, occurred at Marietta, where two high school boys were prosecuted for hazing. They are Clarence Tibbets and Sidney Cole, who were accused of trying to kidnap and haze Frank Bartlett, son of a wealthy oil man. Probate Judge Farlow, before whom they were tried, handed out to them this form of punishment: "It's $10 and costs for each of you. The fine will be remitted, but you will hereafter report to the juvenile court every Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, bring your text books with you, and we will go over your work and see that you are living up to the laws in every respect."

This is the time of year that people in the cities burn leaves. Almost any city in Ohio has an Indian summer atmosphere just now, with real smoke. Because of the effect on asphalt streets some people in Columbus made a big fuss about it and tried to have the police called out to put a stop to it. The result was that orders were given the police to prevent "bonfires," especially on streets paved with asphalt.

The practice of burning leaves was brought to the attention of D. S. Creamer, state fire marshal, in the hope of having a special edict against it issued by him. He said his department has no power except to "scold about it." Mr. Creamer said: "The annual loss in Ohio from burning rubbish amounts to from $13,000 to $20,000, and the number of fires from 60 to 100. I think the property loss will be less this season because an early frost caused the leaves to fall before they were dry enough to burn. I saw a housewife nursing a fire in ten bushels of leaves within 20 feet or less of four stables. What should be done about it? Most cities have ordinances against allowing trash to be burned. Streets and sidewalks being for public use, leaves falling upon them may properly be hauled away at public expense—so think some municipal officers. And about the matter of damage to pavements by roasting bonfires of leaves, is of public as well as private interest."

All of which brought up the question of whether burning leaves under trees injures them. Mr. Creamer showed himself to be somewhat versed in forestry by his reply. He said: "In some instances, yes. But city shade trees have more serious troubles. Half of the roots are under impervious pavements and die of thirst. The other half are robbed of leaves which should lie and rot over them to furnish winter bed clothes and spring food, and the electric lines put off one-fourth of them. Taking away leaves from a tree's roots permits grass to grow and grass skins the cream off the tree's food and it starves. Trees of the beech family, whose roots feed in the surface, get cold feet and slowly die if their dead leaves are taken away."

Quite a few things to what should be done with the state fair grounds when not in use for fair purposes was started by Senator Ward of Cleveland, in an interview. "I object to having the entire grounds, with nearly a million dollars' worth of improvements, closed 51 weeks and two days of the year, for I do not think it right," said Senator Ward. "Up in Cleveland we have a big driving park which belongs to a private corporation, but which is, nevertheless, open to the public the entire summer. Every Saturday afternoon there is a sort of horse show and fine music. I do not say that the fence up there at the grounds ought to be taken away, but I do believe there should be free access and the grounds should be kept in good condition. It ought to be a fine place for concerts and entertainments of all sorts. It would cost little if anything more, and would be of vast benefit to the public. The recent use of the grounds for the street railway convention exhibits was a step in the right direction. I can positively say I will use all my influence in the senate to stop any further appropriations unless the fair grounds are made a more public place."

Senator Ward believes the state board of agriculture would have power in itself to make the grounds a public place for recreation purposes. He declares that if the grounds are not opened, or at least the public is not treated more generously, he will oppose in the senate any further appropriations for improvements there.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Columbus state hospital Dr. George Stockton was re-elected superintendent for a period of four years. Dr. Stockton was elected superintendent in 1902 to take the place of Dr. Eugene Carpenter, who died. He was then elevated from the medical staff of the institution.

At the next meeting of the board bids will be asked for the construction of a $20,000 home for the nurses of the institution and for the building of a $26,000 barn to take the place of the present stables, which are to be turned into cottages.

The committee of the board of state charities which recently investigated and declared charges against the managements of the state institution for the deaf and dumb to be absolutely groundless, in a report filed with Governor Harris, recommends that the case be referred to Attorney General Ellis. The report characterizes as particularly heinous the filing of false charges against the management of state institutions. The committee believes there should be some redress for those thus unjustly accused. In the hope that ground for action against those who filed affidavits against Superintendent J. W. Jones and the trustees of the institution can be found, Governor Harris was asked to pass the report and testimony along to the attorney general, which he did.

The report says that the most scathing denunciation of James E. Tetlow, prosecuting witness, and Walter Reynolds, who made an affidavit supporting the charges, does them no injustice.

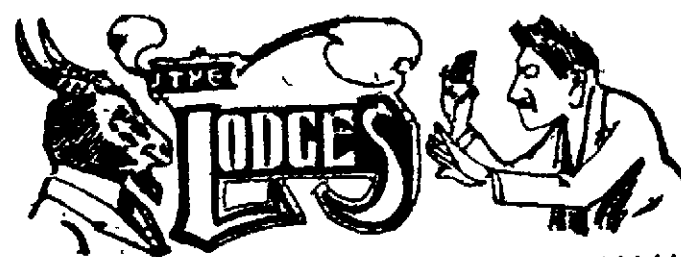

Attorney General Ellis does not expect to institute proceedings against Tetlow. There is no precedent for the attorney general's stepping in, in such a case. In all probability Superintendent Jones will be advised that he is the proper person to take action.

While in that part of the state on a speech-making tour, Governor Harris spent a day at the soldiers' home in Sandusky, where he mingled with the veterans and lent a willing ear to every one who had a complaint to make. He expressed himself as well satisfied with conditions at the home and said his visit had no political significance.

Arrangement has been made with the managers of the Jamestown exposition by the Ohio commission by virtue of which a special building for the exhibits of Ohio manufacturers will be erected if the Ohio people will take up sufficient space.

Major T. S. Clarkson, commissioner of the proposed Alaska-Yukon Pacific exposition at Seattle, Wash., in 1909, had a conference with Governor Harris, by appointment, to enlist the cooperation of Ohio in the form of a building and exhibit. He has visited the governors of every state west of Ohio and each state executive voiced his approval of the proposition. From here he went east to visit the governors of New England after which he will tour the south.

Major Clarkson was commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1897, and was identified with the expositions held in Omaha, Neb., 1898; in Buffalo, 1901; in St. Louis, 1904; in Portland, Ore., 1905. At Omaha he was the director general.

Modern Woodmen.
Cedar Camp, No. 4727, Modern Woodmen of America, held one of the most enjoyable and the largest meetings that has been held for some time being the occasion of a fitting tribute to welcome the head officers to our city. The head officers were met at the B. and O. station with several automobiles in which were some of the prominent Modern Woodmen of Cedar Camp, and immediately upon the arrival of the head officers they were taken a ride over our beautiful city and shown the large factories and beautiful prehistoric grounds at Idlewild Park and at the State Encampment Grounds. In the evening the members of Cedar Camp and their friends assembled at the Auditorium and were treated to one of the best programs that has ever been given under the auspices of Cedar Camp. The committee has not spared any expense or labor in preparing the program, and they feel satisfied that everything was a success. Cedar Camp feels proud of the fact that they have a drill team that can hold its own with any team in the state, and many were surprised and never knew that the team of Cedar Camp could put on such a fancy drill as was seen Wednesday evening. The committee wishes to extend a vote of thanks to B. B. Jones, Dr. W. S. Turner, E. T. Rugs, A. H. Pierson, A. H. Heisey, E. Carey Norris and Dr. C. D. O'Hara for the use of their autos; to Ernest G. Wall and Mrs. Bertha Doomey Roe for the beautiful selections; to the Marsh military band; to Delmo, the juggler; to Master Emerson Ballinger and Miss Mildred Humphrey; to Neighbor Chas. E. Matthews, manager of the Auditorium, and to every person who assisted in the program to make it a success. Neighbors, on next Wednesday there will be a regular meeting of Cedar Camp, and a good turn out of the Neighbors is expected.

Red Men.
Minnewa Tribe, No. 52, Improved Order of Red Men, met in regular council at their wigwam on Friday's sleep, with all chiefs on their stumps and a good turn out of the brothers. The brothers who are unable to follow the hunt were reported improving, and will be able to again take up the trail in a few days. Five petitions for membership were received and committees appointed upon same, three petitions were balloted upon and elected to membership. The First Warrior, in scouting the forest, captured two palefaces for the adoption degree and found in waiting four brothers awaiting the warrior's decree, which was conferred upon them in due form.

The great council of the United States which was in session at Niagara Falls on Sept. 10, 11, 12 and 13, have adopted many new features for the good of the order. In particular they have adopted a new retiring past sashem's certificate, which is also a diploma, and is said to be a handsome picture, and past sashem who graduated too early to receive one from the tribe, and will wish one, will have the right to purchase one through the chief of records of the tribe at a low cost. The great council has also adopted a new Red Men's pin, and no fraternal society emblem in the United States excels in beauty the new pin adopted at Niagara Falls by the great council of the United States. All brothers who are haymakers, are requested to be at the hayloft on the night of October 30, in full uniform, to take part in the parade and to turn out in full haymaker costume. Also, if you are not paid up and in good standing, you will have to pay up or you will not be admitted.

Pathfinders.
Newark lodge, No. 79, of the Pathfinders, held a very interesting meeting Wednesday evening, with a good attendance. The regular routine of business was transacted, after which we were treated to two very nice talks upon Fraternalism by I. K. Embarger of Mansfield, and E. R. Nash, at present located in Columbus. Charles Eagle won the prize in this month's contest. At a late hour all were requested to go to the Kuster dining hall, where an elegant supper was awaiting.

Knights of Pythias.
At the meeting of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias, held in New Orleans this week, the report of the special committee on insurance was adopted in its entirety.

This means almost a complete revision of the insurance plan of the Pythian order. It directly affects $0-000 policyholders, carrying $127,000-000 in insurance, and indirectly affects every one of the 700,000 members of the body. In 29 years the Pythians have paid out over $28-000,000 in benefits. Some of the salient features of the new system adopted include:

An increase in the maximum policy from $2000 to $5000; an increase in the age limit at which members can be insured from 50 to 60 years; the creation of a new fifth class; a complete change from the old fraternal contract to the American experience table, with 2 1-2 per cent in interest.

U. C. T.
The directors' meeting of the U. C. T. was held on Saturday evening with a good attendance, when it was decided to hold a smoker and banquet on the third Saturday in November, it being the second of the organization in Newark. It is earnestly requested that every U. C. T. be present on this occasion, as there is much business to be transacted. We expect Mr. Ford, the grand counselor of Ohio, to be present at our December meeting, at which time there will be a large banquet.

NERVE TABLETS

Sergeant Orr's Letter

Nerve troubles are real. They lead to disastrous results. That may happen to any one. Zell Nerve Tablets feed starved nerves. That's why they restore perfect health. They build nerve strength. They tone up the nervo-spinal system and make rich red blood.

Read what Sergeant Orr, winner of the Sea Girt championship medal for rifle shooting, says about Zell Nerve Tablets:

NEWARK, Ohio, Sept. 18, 1935.
THE ZELL DRUG CO., Galion, Ohio.
Gentlemen:—I want to express to you my appreciation of your valuable Nerve Remedy—Zell Nerve Tablets. When I began practicing for the annual Sea Girt championship, I was weak, nervous, and far from condition to such an ordeal. I decided on your remedy, proper one to use in my case, and used it constantly during my practice and during the shoot, and was highly gratified to be able to win the championship of Ohio in this shoot, and to be selected as one of the contestants in the National Military Competition Shoot at Sea Girt. My success I attribute largely to the use of your remedy and continued use of them up to and during the Sea Girt Shoot, and give it credit for assisting me very materially in the winning of the title which I now bear, the Champion Military Rifle Shot of the United States. I regard your remedy as a most valuable one, and would advise any one needing a Nerve Remedy to at least give Zell Nerve Tablets a trial.
Very truly,
(Signed) SERGEANT CLARENCE E. ORR,
Company 67, 7th Regiment Ohio National Guard, Newark, Ohio.

Explosion of Lamp. An alarm of fire sent in from box 4 about 6:40 o'clock Friday night, called the Central and North End departments to the residence occupied by the families of Mr. Lovell and Mr. Lambert, on North Fifth street. The alarm was caused by the explosion of a lamp in one of the upper rooms. The fire, however, was quickly extinguished and no damage was done. Cake Walk at Auditorium. The last performance of "The Merry Milkmaids," which is referred to at length on page eleven of this paper, will be given at the Auditorium tonight. One of the features of last night's performance was the cake walk by 25 couples. The cake, a perfect sample of the baker's art, was won by the smallest couple on the stage, little Miss Marie Baker and her brother, Master Robert Baker. Next in order of gracefulness and beauty in the cake walk came Miss Mildred Robe and her partner, George Gaunter. This couple lead the walk.

He Hit the Duck. A good story is being told by the friends of Mr. Bert Fitzsimmons about his prowess as a hunter. It seems that Mr. Fitzsimmons a few days since shouldered his rusty shotgun, or rather his trusty shotgun, and made his way to Buckeye Lake. He arrived safely and his friends rather doubted his ability as an expert at duck shooting. With this thought in mind, they arranged a duck, cleverly stuffed and mounted, so that it caught the eye of Mr. Fitzsimmons as it was perched upon a stump. He took deliberate aim, to make sure that his friends did not laugh at him, and fired. When the smoke cleared away the duck was there, but—he hit it.

LEAGUE DEALT A HEAVY BLOW

Most of Its Candidates Are Ruled Off of the Ballot.

PETITIONS WERE DEFECTIVE

Effort Being Made to Get Appeal Heard in Higher Court Before Election—Taft and Bonaparte Speak at Baltimore—Bryan at McKinley's Town—Political Intelligence.

New York, Oct. 27.—A hard blow was dealt the Independence league when the appellate division of the supreme court announced its decision, sweeping nearly all of the league's candidates for congress and state legislature from the ticket.

The decision affecting these local nominations is based on technicalities, the petitioners failing to observe the letter of the law.

A few contested candidates will get on the ballot for the reason that objection to their candidacy was not made within the prescribed time. To these will be added several against whom no protest was entered and others still will be placed, not under the balanced scales, the emblem of the league, but in another column.

Counsel for the league filed an application with the court of appeals at Albany, which took a recess until Nov. 12, asking for a special session of the court, at which the ruling of the appellate division may be argued.

The wholesale removal of Democratic and Independence league candidates who sought to appear on the official ballot under the emblem of the league was based on the opinion that only petitions of candidates for a district that is coterminous are legal. The issue of "multiple petitions" was raised by counsel for the Republican candidates and by representatives of the judiciary nominators. The argument of counsel for the Independence league was that to have had three separate petitions drawn up and circulated would have involved great expense for independent organizations, and that, moreover, there was no necessity for compelling a citizen to sign his name three times to separate petitions. The court, however, held that such a combination petition is illegal, and that the only petition which could be accepted as an independent nomination is one wherein all of the signers nominated but one man.

In another decision the appellate division upheld the contention of the league that its executive committee had the right to say who should be placed on the league ticket, the court holding that the only judiciary ticket to appear under the balanced scales is that authorized by the league managers. This leaves the league's judiciary ticket intact except in one instance, where the nominee declined.

Taft at Baltimore. Baltimore, Oct. 26.—The principal meeting incidental to the current Republican congressional campaign in this state was made notable by the presence of two cabinet officers, Secretary of War Taft and Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte. The latter presided and the former made the principal address. Both were warmly greeted, the reception accorded Secretary Taft amounting to an ovation. In opening the meeting Secretary Bonaparte denounced the Democratic party vigorously, declaring that it is a party of no principles and no policy except to get and keep office, no matter how. Secretary Taft addressed himself to current national issues, viewed in the light of the work of the last congress.

Bryan at Canton. Canton, O., Oct. 27.—William J. Bryan spoke here an hour to an audience of 4,500 in the auditorium. He had planned a visit to the McKinley tomb, but a belated train disarranged the schedule and he was forced to omit the trip. In opening his address Mr. Bryan referred to McKinley as follows: "In former canvasses of this state I have not had the opportunity to speak in Canton, as some other people have. This was due to the fact that my opponent's home was here. We always recognize local pride. That I was defeated in two former campaigns by a man whose spirit of private life and public character were so high and so universally admitted, will always give me a sense of comfortable pleasure."

Protest Ruled Out. Cincinnati, O., Oct. 27.—The Citizens' Municipal ticket, against which a formal protest was filed with the election supervisors, by a vote of 3 to 1 was declared valid and ordered placed on the official ballot. The judicial nominations of the Citizens' Municipal party, which received Democratic endorsement, will therefore have place under both parties on the ballot. The board held that the charge that the petition contained illegal signatures was not sustained.

Will Give Up Chairmanship. Washington, Oct. 27.—Postmaster General George B. Cortelyou will retire from the chairmanship of the Republican national committee before he becomes secretary of the treasury in succession to Secretary Shaw. This statement is made on excellent authority. It has been generally understood that Secretary Shaw will retire from the treasury March 4, but an intimation was given out that he may sever his connection with the department earlier. Harry S. New, vice chairman of the Republican committee, is expected to assume the duties of chairman when Cortelyou retires.

End of Bryan's Ohio Trip. Marietta, O., Oct. 27.—W. J. Bryan's second day's campaigning in Ohio ended with a night meeting here. His speeches were similar to his utterances the first day. His itinerary for the third and last day of the trip is Lancaster, Circleville, Washington C. H., Wilmington, Franklin, Middletown, Cincinnati, Dayton, Troy, Piqua, Sidney, Versailles, Ansonia, Celina and Xenia, and night.

Barred by Technicality. New Orleans, Oct. 27.—A technicality will apparently bar the Republican candidate for congress in the First district of Louisiana, Harry F. Siener, from taking his seat if elected. He voted last month at a Democratic primary on purely local issues. The new primary law provides that no person can be a candidate of one party if he has participated in the primary of an opposition party.

Burton at Columbus. Columbus, O., Oct. 27.—Congressman Burton of Cleveland spoke to a large audience here in Memorial hall, it being the last big Republican rally of the campaign here. His speech was chiefly an appeal for the re-election of Congressman E. L. Taylor and a general arraignment of the Democratic party.

Zenor Withdraws. Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 27.—The controversy between Congressman W. T. Zenor and W. L. Cox as to who is the regular Democratic nominee in the Third Indiana congressional district was settled by the withdrawal of Congressman Zenor.

SKELETON KEY USED BY BURGLAR IN BUCK'S SALOON

Burglars succeeded in forcing an entrance to the saloon of David Buck in West Newark Friday night and a quantity of whiskey, some cigars and $3.54 in money were stolen. The burglars threw the bolt in the lock with a skeleton key, but another bolt held the door. They then cut away the panel and slid this bolt and the door swung open. Officer Carroll is working on the case.

"The Republicans failing to nominate a candidate known to stand for high moral ideals, can expect little else than defeat at the polls this fall. The promise to secure appropriations for a few public buildings will not bolster up the IMPERANCE AND IMMORALITY of any candidate."

—Wooster Herald.

Bryan and Ashbrook.

William A. Ashbrook joined William J. Bryan Friday and accompanied him throughout the speaking tour of this district, introducing him to the audiences at a number of the meetings. Mr. Bryan impressed upon his audiences to see to it that Mr. Ashbrook is elected to Congress, and was well pleased with the tremendous demonstrations made by the people in the latter's behalf.

Mr. Bryan also took occasion at the same time to proclaim and signify his approval of all of President Roosevelt's reforms—those the President has gotten through Congress by great effort against his party leaders and those measures he is still contending should be enacted into law. Mr. Bryan points out that these reforms of Roosevelt will never be allowed to become laws by the Republican leaders and that the only way they can be gotten through Congress is by a Democratic majority in the House.

To the people of the 17th Congressional district Mr. Bryan makes it evident that William A. Ashbrook is a better friend of Roosevelt and all the reform measures that he stands for than is Martin Luther Snyder.

The two leading political speakers before Ohio audiences Friday were William J. Bryan for the Democrats and Theodore Burton, the Cleveland Congressman, for the Republicans. Both praised Roosevelt. Bryan denounced the Senatorial bosses, Foraker and Dick, and Burton significantly ignored them. There is a wide difference between Burton and Snyder as to tariff revision, trusts and bossism.

The Itch Fiend

That is Salt Rheum or Eczema,—one of the outward manifestations of scrofula.

It comes in itching, burning, oozing, drying, and scaling patches, on the face, head, hands, legs or body.

It cannot be cured by outward applications,—the blood must be rid of the impurity to which it is due.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has cured the most persistent and difficult cases. Accept no substitute for Hood's; no substitute for the it.

STILL NOTHING DOING.

Official indifference to that wholesale jail delivery is still in evidence.

A belief is abroad that there was a pre-organized plan of some kind on the part of the prisoners and friendly outsiders by which the escape was so successful.

Whether there are sufficient grounds for suspicion of such a conspiracy or not, it is absolutely certain that this wholesale escape of prisoners from a supposed impregnable jail and the known circumstances connected with the grave affair are sufficient to call for a prompt investigation by the common pleas court.

The dangerous character of the escaped prisoners too, demands that a larger reward be offered for their re-capture, and that there be a wider publication of that reward than the mere insertion in a local newspaper.

Yet nothing has been done, the prisoners are still at large with no prospect whatever of their recapture, and the official indifference that has been manifested is certainly discouraging to good citizens.

Are the officers upon whom this responsibility rests so intensely engaged in the matter of securing their own election that they cannot give a little attention to a great public duty?

The Columbus Press-Post remarks that next year Senator Dick, who wanted to hold the machine convention at Cedar Point because there are no newspapers published there and who did keep it away from Columbus, may want to take state headquarters away from the capital. There is no more chilly place for the bosses than Columbus has proved this campaign.

Does Snyder stand for Roosevelt, or does he stand for his old political chum, Foraker, who is now more afraid of the President's "greed of power" than he is of the trusts' "greed of avarice."

There are two Ohio Democratic congressional candidates that are attracting great national interest. These are ex-Governor James E. Campbell of the Third district and General I. R. Sherwood of the Toledo district. There is no doubt that both will overcome the Republican majorities in their districts and be elected.

Up to date Martin Luther Snyder has not said a word in disapproval of Senator Foraker's statement that he feared the trusts' "greed of avarice" less than he feared Roosevelt's "greed of power." And it can be set down as a certainty that not a word will escape his lips in condemnation of that position taken by Foraker. Any profession that Snyder may make to the contrary can not disguise the fact that he is, at heart, no better friend of Roosevelt than Foraker is.

Dr. H. Russell Burner, widely known as the Radium King, a former resident of Newark, who for several years has been living on the Pacific coast, is visiting here and has consented to give two of his scientific, moral and instructive health lectures complimentary to his many friends, former acquaintances and fellow citizens.

The first free lecture will be given free for ladies and gentlemen at the Opera House, West Main street, tonight at 7:30 o'clock on the subject "How I regained my health and vitality and the Great Natural Laws of Health." Dr. Burner who today owns more radium and radium salts appliances and machines than any other man in the world, has established five large sanitariums in the west and today these institutions are treating nearly 500 patients. Dr. Burner tells the Advocate that he intends to erect a large sanitarium in Ohio to accommodate at least 100 patients and that he would like to construct this building in Newark. He will spend $100,000 providing a suitable site is given by Newark people in erecting a modern up to date structure that will be a credit to the city and that will cause the city of Newark to be widely known throughout the whole country. Dr. Burner will leave next Monday for the coast. He is now stopping at the Warden where he will be glad to meet his friends and talk over the project he proposes. All are invited to attend his free lectures tonight and tomorrow night.

TUMBL'D FROM WINDOW-WALKED IN HIS SLEEP

Rudolph Eisert, a saloonist at Baltimore and Cedar streets in East Newark, is lying at his home in a serious condition which resulted from a fall from the second story window at his home Thursday night. Mr. Eisert had been tending bar early in the evening and was relieved by his wife, Mr. Eisert not feeling well.

He was in bed when Mrs. Eisert put the children to bed at 8 o'clock. About 10 o'clock, neighbors rushed into the saloon where Mrs. Eisert was on duty, and informed her that her husband was lying on the ground under a window. When he was picked up by several neighbors it was noticed that he had no feeling in his legs or in the lower part of his body. Dr. Sedem was hurriedly called and found that the man's spine had been injured, causing a partial paralysis. He suffered internal hemorrhages during the evening and was restless during the whole night.

Mr. Eisert has not lost consciousness and says that he does not remember how the accident occurred but that he believes he was walking in his sleep.

WORK WEAKENS THE KIDNEYS.

Doan's Kidney Pills Have Done Great Service for People Who Work in Newark.

Most Newark people work every day in some strained, unnatural position—bending constantly over a desk—riding on jolting wagons or cars—doing laborious housework; lifting, reaching or pulling, or trying the back in a hundred and one other ways. All these strains tend to weaken and injure the kidneys until they fall behind in their work of filtering the poisons from the blood. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, put new strength in bad backs. Newark cures prove it.

Wesley Rowland, express driver, living on Washington St., near Mill St., East Newark, O., says: "Many a time my back pained me so and was so weak that I could not load my wagon. If I stopped to pick up anything it was all I could do to straighten up. My back pained me so at nights that I could not sleep. I would wake up again with terrible pain through the back and shoulders as if I were in a cramp. I tried liniments and various remedies but found nothing that helped me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Crayton's drug store. Three boxes were all that were required to cure me and the cure has been permanent. That was two years ago and I have had no trouble of the kind since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milbur Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Saratoga, N. Y., Oct. 27.—A run is in progress at Senator Brackett's "Ironclad Trust" company. Hundreds of Italians and small depositors are fighting to withdraw their deposits. Brackett said this morning that the doors of the bank will be kept open until midnight to pay the depositors. It is believed that a rumor that the bank was insolvent was started by political enemies. The company is said to be thoroughly sound.

DR. H. R. BURNER,

Better known throughout the world as
Prof. H. Russel Burner, M.D.
The Radium King.

A former well-known citizen of this city and county, who has for many years lived in California and now lives in Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting friends here, and has consented to give two of his scientific, moral and instructive health lectures in Newark, complimentary to his many friends, former acquaintances, neighbors and fellow-citizens.

First lecture free for ladies and gentlemen—Saturday evening October 27, at 7:30 o'clock, at the A. I. U. Hall, formerly known as the Wallace Opera House, 18-1-2 West Main Street. Subject, by request, "How I Regained My Health and Vitality, and the Great Natural Laws of Health," and temperance fully explained, and its importance to the individual, state and the nation. Why a few men are successful in life, and why so many fail.

Second lecture, free for ladies and gentlemen—Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. Subject, by request, "Temperance and Liberty in the Practice of Medicine, and What It Means." What is the A. M. A., and what does it stand for? (The enslavement of the American people.) What is the A. M. U., and what does it stand for? (The freedom and rights of every American citizen.) Let the head of no family fail to hear these great and burning truths discoursed, which means so much for home, wife, father and child.

DR. BURNER, has been one, if not Ohio's greatest travelers, having made three trips around the world; seven trips across the Atlantic, and twelve trips across the continent.

DR. BURNER is sole owner of the London Anatomical Museum, the largest and finest Fine Art Anatomical collection owned by any one man in the world.

DR. BURNER is founder of the New Los Angeles Temple of Health, in which he has invested more than one hundred thousand dollars, for the free public good. He is also founder of Dr. Burner's Los Angeles Post Graduate College and Training School for Nurses, and Proprietor and Surgeon-in-Chief of Dr. Burner's Los Angeles Sanatorium, and California Radium, Milk and Rest Cure. President of the California Radium and Rest Cure Company.

Dr. Burner's California Outdoor Radium, Milk and Rest Cure Sanatorium, for the exclusive treatment and cure of Consumption, President of Dr. Burner's Pacific Private Sanatorium for the cure of all curable Nervous and Mental Disease, with General Central Offices, fourth floor Temple of Health, 512 South Broadway, Los Angeles, Cal.

DR. BURNER is said to now own more Radium and Radio Active Salts and Radium Appliance and Machines than there is owned altogether in the entire world. And it is through the use and advantage of this Radium, Appliance, Radium Salts and Pure Radium that Dr. Burner has made such marked success in the treatment of so many so-called incurable diseases in his four large Sanatoriums in California. And Dr. Burner now tells us, if the City of Newark or Licking County, will furnish him a proper site or buildings, he will establish the first Radium, Milk and Rest Cure Sanatorium east of the Rocky Mountains here. And as this is his native county, will make it a monument to his great success in this, his greatest discovery, in the science of medicine, for the relief of suffering humanity.

Dr. Burner is stopping at Hotel Warden, Suite 46, where he will remain until Monday morning, when he leaves for the Pacific Coast, via Chicago, where he will be pleased to see his many friends and talk over the above proposition with all those interested.

Don't fail to attend these two most interesting and important lectures and see and hear the chips fall as the Doctor hews closely to the line without fear or favor to either great or small, weak or strong.

Remember the dates, this Saturday and Sunday evenings, at 7:30 o'clock, and the place, the A. I. U. Hall, formerly known as the Wallace Opera House, No. 18 1-2 West Main St.

GOOD SCORES MADE IN BOWLING GAME

On Music Hall Alleys Friday Night.
Solinger Made High Score, but His Team Lost Game.

The Flicker Club went down in defeat Friday night before the Newark Bowling club, the latter winning out by 272 pins. There was some good bowling on both sides.

The Flicker club members state that the captain of the Newark club dropped his two weak bowlers, Tracer and Baker, and substituted two professionals, Peterman and Frank Jones.

Solinger of the Flicker club rolled high score with 211 and high average with 558. Eugene Schlegel, with 556, was a close second for high average. Schlegel rolled a new ball, called the "gimlet and lead" ball. He has the credit of having made the ball himself, and it can be seen at any time at the Music Hall alleys.

STEVENS WON MATCH GAME FROM CARR

The match game between George R. Carr and Fred Stevens for the ten pin championship of the Wehrle engineering department, was a walk-over for Carr. He proved himself master of the situation by taking four out of the first five games by large margins.

Stevens was clearly outclassed and the steady rolling of Carr was a feature.

Stevens is out with a challenge for a return match, however, and says he will redeem himself in the next contest by proving himself Carr's master.

The date of said return game will be duly announced and it will be worth while for any bowler to witness.

Carr . . . 135 115 150 145 133

BOWLING NOTES.
There will be a meeting of the Newark Union league Sunday afternoon at the Music Hall theatre to complete the organization of the bowling league. The report of the schedule committee and the report of the board of directors who were to draft a set of rules and regulations, will be received.

The Flicker club will bowl the Spring club, the Glassblowers' Ap- prentices, on the Music Hall alleys, Monday, Oct. 29, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The B. and O. team will roll the 454 Molders on the Music Hall alleys on Monday night.

MANY BETS MADE STATE-MEDIC GAME

State Supporters Are Crazy to Place
Money on Their Team for the Thanksgiving Game.

It would be natural to suppose that State's supporters would wait until the Medics had a chance to show themselves in a hard contest before they plunged very heavily on the outcome of the State-Medic contest on Thanksgiving Day. Such is not the case. O. S. U. supporters in Columbus seem to think their team invincible, and are offering even money that State will score twenty more points than the Medics. Two to one bets can be gotten that State will win the game regardless of the score. Tiger supporters are ready with their money and many bets are being closed. The Tigers are offering even money that their team will score twice on State.

However, the outcome of the game Saturday with Case is bound to affect the betting. This will be the first time that any reasonable estimate of the Tigers' strength can be made, as all their games so far have been mere practice games. If the Medics roll up a large score on Case they will probably find it harder to place money on the outcome of the Thanksgiving game. If Case succeeds in beating the Tigers, or even in holding them to a low score State stock will advance.

NEWARK PLAYERS

Go to Columbus for Game With National Football Team Sunday Afternoon.

The Newark Athletic club will go to Columbus Sunday to play the Nationals, a strong independent club of Columbus. The game will be played at Indianola park. The following players are requested by the manager, John Phillips, to report at the interurban station in time to take the 9:20 car for Columbus: V. Ingle, B. Hoover, B. Knott, E. Nehls, G. Rhinehart, A. Klei, G. Shuckhart, L. Shaughnessy, H. Neis, J. Pieri, G. Slane, T. Paul, M. McCarthy, R. Rick- enbaugh, C. Vanatta.

HELLER WILL QUIT?

Fred Heller of the Lancaster team, has announced that he will not be seen in the game as a professional hereafter. As an outfielder and a batsman, Heller has been a star with the Lancaster team for a number of years. Despite his announcement, it's dollars to pennies that Fred will be playing ball when the bluebirds begin to sing next spring. Hundreds of players quit the game for good each fall when salaries stop for the winter, but few of them fail to show up for practice the following spring.

And He Was Back.

"I don't see why you can't be at the head of your class," said Tommy's mother. "Your teacher tells me you're pretty far back in school."
"Well, say, mom," exclaimed Tommy, "there's no pleasin' you at all! Didn't you say last summer you'd be delighted to have me 'back in school'?"

JOCKEY SUSPENDED FOR SUSPICIOUS RIDING.

HERMAN SADKE

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Housed to unusual activity by the complaints of race-goers at the flugrant performances of late by both jockeys and horses, the racing officials at the Jamaica track summoned before them Herman Sadke, who rode Tommy Waddell into fourth place in the third race Tuesday, and, not satisfied with his excuses, they suspended him for the meeting and referred his case to the Jockey Club.

READING CIRCLE ORGANIZED.

Pursuant to the call of Prof. P. E. Snelling, secretary of the Reading Circle for Madison township, the teachers of that township met Friday evening at the Ambert school house for the purpose of organizing a Reading circle.

The following splendid organization was perfected: President, Mr. E. D. Claggett, teacher of the Brookside school; secretary, Mr. Mac Mossman, of the Coshocton school; treasurer, Prof. Snelling.
The meeting was enthusiastic to a high degree—so much so that all present were inspired to higher labor in their profession. Prof. Snelling, who is township secretary, made some remarks replete with lofty sentiments as to the importance of good reading. Let every teacher and student in historic old Madison township join this progressive reading circle and become familiar with some of the world's best literature.

A man in East Concord, N. H., recently unearthed an apple in a perfect state of preservation while digging in his yard. It was three or four feet under ground and imbedded in some slaked lime which was probably thrown away when the house was built several years ago.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.
Did you ever see a rosebush which, despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth?

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart. You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vasoline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out. Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

HOUSE CLEANING IN CITY OFFICES

Fall house cleaning is on in earnest in the city hall. Not the political kind, but the real kind of house cleaning which you encounter at home, when you have to tie yourself off to the basement to take your meals from an inverted cider keg. The auditor's private office, the mayor's private sanctum and the council chamber are all torn up, the carpets having been sent to the renovators to be given a much needed cleaning.

It will be several days yet before the carpets will be laid and conditions assume their former shape. Meanwhile the city clerk and mayor are practically driven from their haunts by the advance of the mop and the scrub brush.

FELL IN GAS DITCH

Driver Ignored Danger Signal and Drove Rig Into Trench—Escaped Injury.

Some gentleman, either suffering from over indulgence in liquor or else was sound asleep, had a harrowing experience on Sixteenth street Thursday night, where a gas main is being put in. A ditch extending from Main street north for a block or two was left open Thursday night, but a usual was protected by red lights, warning drivers from that side of the street.

Buggy tracks in the dirt show that some one drove into the ditch after demolishing the danger lights. The buggy wheels dropped into the ditch, which was three feet deep and for a block the vehicle had one wheel in the ditch while the other was on top of the pile of dirt beside it. As far as could be learned, no one was hurt. When the rig left the ditch the horse was driven across the corner of a yard on Sixteenth street.

CONTESTANTS IN FINAL ROUND FOR COLLEGE GOLF HONORS.

W. E. CLOW JR.

DAUGHT PARTRIDGE

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—W. E. Clow, Jr., captain of the Yale golf team, defeated his college mate, Dwight Partridge, by one up in the final for the intercollegiate golf championship at Garden City. The struggle was a thirty-six holes and was so prolonged that it was practically impossible in the falling light for the men to distinguish the cup when they putted on the green.

MR. FRANK BELMAR GOES TO SHARON, PA.

Mr. Frank Belmar, one of the well known printers of the city, former foreman of the American Tribune plant, will leave Sunday, for Sharon, Pa., where he will accept a position as foreman of the Sharon Telegraph, owned by Mr. A. C. Dickinson, formerly of this city.

Mr. Belmar has been a "typotype" operator for several years in Newark, having worked for both the Advocate and the American Tribune. He is a printer of wide experience, and the foremanship of a paper will not be a new line of work for him.

His many friends in Newark, while regretting to have him leave the city, will be glad to learn of his securing such a good position. There is no doubt but that Mr. Belmar will "make good." Mr. Frank S. Neighbor, formerly of this city, is the manager of the Telegraph.

A Wonderful Remedy

Mr. C. E. Pitzer, Newark, Ohio, says: "I think Dr. Jackson's Digestive and Liver Powders are the greatest remedy in the world. I suffered constantly from rheumatism, bloating, sour stomach and heart trouble. At times I could hardly get my breath. I could not eat solid food and nothing agreed with me. I could not sleep or rest and kept getting worse. After trying many remedies I concluded to give a trial. From the start they relieved me, appetite improved, gained strength, could eat anything without suffering afterwards. After taking a few boxes I was entirely cured. The above trouble was caused by indigestion. Our powders simply contained the ingredients to replace what was lacking in his weak stomach and digestive organs to digest the food and prevent it from fermenting. They converted the food into good, rich, red blood and built up the entire system. Being in powder form and does sufficient they dissolved in his weak stomach and gave relief at once.

Dr. Jackson's Digestive and Liver Powders

On sale by all druggists. See that Dr. A. L. Jackson's picture is on every package.

NEWARK MAN HELD UP LAST NIGHT

B. & O. CONDUCTOR CHAS. A. THURTON ROBBED AT MT. VERNON BY MASKED MEN.

Was Beaten Into Submission and Valuable Watch and Sum of Money Were Taken.

Mr. Vernon, Ohio, Oct. 27.—Conductor John Atherton of Newark, who held on and robbed last night at Chestnut street and the B. & O. railroad. Mr. Atherton was assaulted and badly injured, but was able to take his train on to Newark.

The victim of the holdup was on an east bound freight, which arrived in Mt. Vernon about 9 o'clock. Mr. Atherton left his caboose in the north end of the yards to go to the telegraph office in the station for his orders.

When he reached Chestnut street two masked men stepped out from the shadows and ordered the conductor to throw up his hands. Atherton immediately offered resistance, but the two were more than a match for him and he was soon subdued. He was compelled to pass over his gold watch and two or three dollars in money.

The Mt. Vernon police department was notified and are working on the case. They have an excellent description of the robbers from Mr. Atherton, but aside from this there is no clue for them to work upon.

STOLE AN ORGAN AND ALSO A COW

Madison, Ind. Oct. 27.—It developed yesterday in the trial of John Cain, who stole a reed organ two years ago and hauled it 55 miles to Shelby, where he sold it, once stole a cow and put boots on her to prevent her being tracked. He was sent to the penitentiary for this crime and has been out only a short time.

Bellamy Storer, former United States minister to Austria-Hungary, returned to United States.

RELATIVES SAY DEAN IS INSANE

COLLEGE SWINDLER RECENTLY RELEASED FROM THE OHIO PENITENTIARY.

Postoffice Robbery—Notes Stolen—Cleveland Cars Stopped—Hazers Tie Boy to Track.

Delaware, O., Oct. 27.—Relatives in Dayton have taken up the fight to secure the release of J. A. Dean, the college swindler, who was rearrested by Delaware authorities Oct. 22, when he was released from the pen. The local authorities have been asked to turn the man over to authorities of Montgomery county, as a charge of insanity was filed against him there. Prosecuting Attorney Humes notified Dean's relatives to file the insanity suit in this county and have the man examined here. Dean either was insane or feigned insanity some time before he was released from the penitentiary.

Postoffice Robbery.
Cincinnati, O., Oct. 27.—For two weeks a guard at night has been watching the postoffice at Georgetown, O., as a result of an anonymous letter sent to Postoffice Inspector Holmes at Cincinnati, declaring that the writer overheard two men on a train between Dayton and Cincinnati plotting to rob the postoffice at Georgetown. Nothing happened for two weeks and the guard was withdrawn. The robbers immediately blew the postoffice safe, securing $200 worth of stamps and $50 in money.

Valuable Notes Stolen.
Hamilton, O., Oct. 27.—Notes valued at $12,000 and the last will and testament of William E. Beckett, a wealthy farmer of Connersville, Ind., were stolen from his valise at the Farmers' hotel. The police suspect a Dayton man who was seen by a chambermaid to leave Beckett's room.

Cleveland Cars Stopped.
Cleveland, O., Oct. 27.—The street car situation in this city assumed an acute phase when the police, acting under instructions from City Hall suddenly stopped the cars of the Cleveland Electric Railway company and suburban lines on Erie street, between Prospect street and Central avenue. The action was taken, it is said, because it is held that the franchise of the Cleveland Electric railway on Erie street has expired. The station of the suburban lines is located on Erie street and as a result of the tie-up out-of-town cars were unable to discharge freight at the regular terminal depot.

Hazers Tie Boy to Track.
East Liverpool, O., Oct. 27.—Four students of the East Liverpool high school while hazing John Greene and Percy Werl, took them to the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad and tied them to a post protruding from the ties. The hazers called Greene from his home and dragged him to the tracks, where Werl had already been tied. The screams of the boys attracted the attention of the night watchman who released them three minutes before a detoured Ft. Wayne express shot by.

Librarians Elect Officers.
Portsmouth, O., Oct. 27.—The Ohio State Library association elected the following officers: President, Burton E. Stevenson, Chillicothe, first vice president, John Pugh, Columbus; second vice president, Laura Smith, Cincinnati; third vice president, Dr. W. D. Conklin, Dayton; secretary, Miss Mary Parker, Elvira; treasurer, Miss Grace Prince, Springfield. Columbus was selected as the meeting place next year.

Took Poison by Mistake.
Bellevue, O., Oct. 27.—Seneca Blair, 87, resident of Logan county, is dead from carbolic acid poisoning. He had a cough and drank carbolic acid from a bottle that looked like cough syrup.

MOORE CLAIMS HE WAS ASSAULTED

Officers were called to the William Moore residence in East Newark Friday night by a report from Mr. Moore which told the officers that he had been held up. Moore claimed to have lost a large sum of money, something over a hundred dollars. He stated that he was struck in the back of the head with a black jack or some other weapon but a doctor who was called by the police could discover no indication of an assault. It is claimed by neighbors that there was a domestic disturbance at the Moore home but the police have no report of any trouble. The officers do not take any stock in the holdup story.

SLANE YELLED AND HIGHWAYMAN RAN

Saloonist Looked Into Big Gun and Outwitted the Assailant—Only Lost His Breath.

Charles Slane, the West Main St. saloonist, was the victim of a bold holdup Friday night about 11 o'clock while going to his home, No. 331 West Church street. Just before reaching his home, the holdup expert appeared as if by magic and pointed a big gun at Slane's head and demanded that he throw up his hands.

Slane called the thug's bluff by emitting a yell that would have done credit to any of the "fighty" Utes now on a rampage in the West. The yell had the desired effect and Slane's assailant fled without taking the trouble to go through his victim's clothes. The matter was reported to the police, but the departure of the highwayman made it impossible for Mr. Slane to note his description.

FALL SUIT REMARKS

THE SUITS of the season suggests stateliness rather than baggy fulness. Take the coat, for instance—though the shoulders are broad, the lines concave towards the waist, then flare out into long skirts, forming what is called, the French back. Some of these suits have center vents with creased side seams. The new big lapels tend to give the impression of a broad chest. A noticeable feature of this long coat is the fact that it lends itself equally well to short and tall men.

COURT FIXES J. F. LINGAFELTER BOND AT $10,000

EX-BANKER MAY NOT BE SET
FREE FROM JAIL UNTIL MONDAY.

CASE NOW IN CIRCUIT COURT

Petition in Error To Be Heard Jan.
10—Clerk to Wait for Written
Order of Court.

In the case of James F. Lingafelter, who was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary by Judge R. M. Campbell for forgery in connection with the failure of the Homestead Building association, and who was granted a suspension of sentence on Friday by the circuit court, pending error proceedings, is still in the county jail.

Saturday morning J. W. Hursey, clerk of the courts for Licking county, was notified by telephone by Judge Campbell from Ashland, to fix the bond of James F. Lingafelter at $10,000. Judge Campbell said, however, that the clerk need not act until he received a written order from him.

The circuit court will hear the petition in error January 10. The order, if sent immediately, could not reach here before Monday, which means that Mr. Lingafelter must spend Sunday in jail.

MORPHINE OUTFIT

Was Found by Supt. Leonard, But Lingafelter Made No Effort to Conceal It.

A few days ago a report was circulated about town to the effect that Robert Lingafelter had lost his office position in the Mansfield Reformatory and had been assigned to manual labor because a morphine hypodermic outfit was found in his clothing. The Advocate telephoned to the reformatory but at the time Superintendent Leonard was not present. His private secretary would neither deny nor affirm the report but did say that Lingafelter was engaged in manual labor at the institution. This statement was made in the Advocate at that time.

Superintendent Leonard's attention has since been called to the matter and according to the Mansfield Shield Mr. Leonard said:

"Lingafelter was never assigned to duty, and has never been guilty of any misdemeanor since entering the reformatory. The young man is doing light work on the grounds upon the advice of a physician, as he is in very bad physical condition. He was accompanied to the reformatory by a relative who upon leaving gave him a number of small articles, among which was a syringe containing morphine. The reformatory officials believe that he has been addicted to the use of the drug and his family thought that he could not live without it. The syringe was, of course, found by the officials upon examining the articles, and taken away. Lingafelter made no attempt to hide it.

"The young man's condition is pitiful enough," said Mr. Leonard, "without misrepresenting him."

From Offices in Villages.

Washington, Oct. 27.—It is announced at the postoffice department that hereafter the delivery of mail by rural carriers will be permitted to persons residing not less than one-quarter of a mile from postoffices at unincorporated towns or villages, provided such persons will erect boxes on rural routes as officially laid out. This will apply at both distributing and intermediate offices.

EXTERMINATE THUGS.

Peculiar Proposition Submitted to Secretary of Navy.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Secretary Bonaparte received a letter from a resident of Louisiana suggesting that the United States should force "all the toughs, bootleg desperadoes and bad characters generally" into a war "with some vicious nation" in order that the undesirable elements might be killed off. Secretary Bonaparte, in replying, said that as the correspondent did not give his plan in detail, he was unable to give an opinion as to its merits, but he called attention to the fact that it is the experience in war that the percentage of desirable citizens killed was larger than the percentage of bad characters.

SWEEPING ORDER

Has Been Issued by Police Commissioner Bingham in the City of New York.

New York, Oct. 27.—A police order almost if not quite as sweeping as that which directed the transfer of every police captain except one was issued by Police Commissioner Bingham. Under the new order every plain clothes man in the city will don a uniform and in the future the power of captains in assigning any man to plain clothes duty will be limited. The order threatens to do away with plain clothes men, otherwise known as "wardmen."

EIGHT HOURS A DAY'S WORK

Verdict at Cincinnati Sustains Position—Contractor Must Now Obey the Law.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 27.—The first test here of the federal eight-hour day law ended in a victory for the government. After being out only 15 minutes the jury in the United States court found the Sheridan-Kirk contracting company guilty of violating the law in the construction of the big Ohio river dam at Fernbank, nine miles below this city. The determination of the penalty will come later. The law provides for a fine not exceeding $1,000. The trial was hotly contested by the defense. Managers of employment agencies testified that it was impossible to get men for the pay given them for an eight-hour day.

Several weeks ago over 200 of the company's men did not appear for duty and the company was rendered practically helpless. Before the government decided to make a test case workmen on the dam and locks were permitted to work as many hours as they pleased. The majority worked from 10 to 12 hours per day and were paid at the rate of 20 cents per hour. No sooner were the hours cut down than the laborers began to leave, claiming they could make only $1.60 a day on the dam and could make more elsewhere.

Shaving Gold Coins.
Seattle, Wash., Oct. 27.—Hundreds of gold pieces are being "shaved" by some unknown manner in this city. So well is the work being done it escaped detection by some of the most experienced bank cashiers. The criminal is carefully trimming off the edges without destroying the milling. Captain Bell of the secret service estimates that about 50 cents is made on a five-dollar gold piece and $1 on larger coins.

IS "SHIP OF MYSTERY," THE XEMA, SEEK "TREASURE ISLAND" OF SAILOR'S YARN.

THE DECK OF THE "XEMA"

All England is eagerly awaiting news of the steamship Xema, which is searching the seas somewhere off the west coast of Africa for an uncharted island where diamonds may be picked up on the beach, if a story told by a sailor is true.

While the Xema is a big, new steamship, fitted with all the mechanical devices known to shipping and science, and while the men who command her and compose her crew are everyday sailors, with probably no more of the dreamer in their make-up than any other seafarers, nevertheless the entire expedition seems as romantic as if it were two centuries before the present day. Its prospectus reads more like one which Ponce de Leon might have issued when he set out to find the fountain of eternal youth, than that of a hardheaded, profit-seeking venture of this century.

The report of this island of fabulous wealth is said to have come from a Welsh sailor who was stranded on it, and through whom it was reported to the De Beers Syndicate, which controls the great diamond mines of Kimberley and the Rand. Immediately an association was formed, composed, it is said, of such prominent men as Sir Alexander er Muir Mackenzie, Lord Aberdare, the Marquis of Tweeddale, Prince F. Duple Singh, Admiral Sir Berkeley Milne and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle. The sailor's story was investigated as fully as is possible in England, and so convinced were these men that they chartered the Xema and placed her in command of Captain Grey, who was instructed to find the uncharted island and to seek out the deposits of diamonds.

PEARY'S WIFE SURE HE'S FOUND THE NORTH POLE

New York, Oct. 27.—In a Portland, Me., dispatch to the New York Times, Mrs. Robert E. Peary, wife of the explorer, is quoted as saying: "I feel just as sure as I am living at this moment that my husband has found the North Pole, and that he will soon be home to tell us all about it."

Mrs. Peary has spent the summer with her little daughter on Enk Island, an isolated bit of land in Casco Bay, where the Peary summer home is situated. With her little daughter Marie she came to Portland yesterday. "I do not expect to hear from him until the last of November," she continued, "but I will not be disappointed if I do not hear from him then. He has not reached the pole, I expect, that he is in his winter quarters. Cape Hood."

On the last day Mr. Peary was forced to turn back, when within 20 miles of his goal, owing to the lack of provisions. This, however, will be able to play 500 miles farther north than have other men, and this will give him just so much advantage.

"BELL" BRIDE AND LAND IN JAIL

Coshocton County "Friends" Break
Down Doors at a Home Reception
After Wedding.

Coshocton, Ohio, Oct. 27.—Four men from Linton township were incarcerated in the county jail yesterday by Sheriff Browning and Officer Ed. Harkins, as the result of a "belling" not far from Plainfield on Thursday night.

Harvey Roof of Franklin township and Miss Bessie Roehrig of Linton township, had been married by Rev. Weber in Coshocton Thursday. They drove to the bride's home, and in the evening a number of their friends gave them an old-fashioned serenading.

It is said that the serenaders were well treated, but some of them had indulged in more liquor than was good for them, and four of the revelers, Benjamin Latta, Leo Ashbaker, John Powelson and Mel Powelson, returned to the Roehrig home. They wanted in again, but when they were not admitted it is said that they began to break in.

They are charged with breaking one door and one window of the value of about $5.

Morse Buys Mallory Line.

New York, Oct. 27.—Charles W. Morse has purchased the Mallory line of steamships. It is understood that consolidation of the four companies, of which Morse is the head, into one holding company is contemplated. The consolidated company, it is understood, will have $200,000,000 capital.

PERRY RYAN WAS YOUNGEST SOLDIER IN CIVIL WAR

Like Col. Clem, He Enlisted as a Drummer Boy, Aged Nine Years and Ten Months.

Washington, Oct. 27.—The controversy as to who was the youngest soldier of the civil war probably was settled in favor of Perry Ryan of Seattle, Wash. He enlisted as a drummer boy in Company D, Twenty-fourth Iowa volunteers, Aug. 22, 1862, at the age of 9 years and 10 months. After serving nearly a year he was honorably discharged on a surgeon's certificate of disability. The pension office found that his representations were correct. He will receive a tidy sum as back pension.

WARRANTS OUT

For Three Men and Woman on Charge of Wrecking a Bank.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Warrants for the arrest of several persons in connection with the failure of the Aetna Banking and Trust company, a branch of a Bank, Mont. institution, which was closed a few days ago by the comptroller of currency, were issued by police court. The warrants charge conspiracy and are for E. W. McCormick, engaged in forming corporations; Raymond S. Donaldson, real estate dealer; Mrs. Barbara T. Kitchmann and John T. Hoag, the latter an assistant cashier. McCormick, Donaldson and Miss Kitchmann were directors of the Illinois Securities company and Hoag made an affidavit that this concern had a deposit in the bank. Hoag was arrested in Chicago.

Marauding Cubans.

Havana, Oct. 27.—As a result of continued depredations by small bands of former insurgents in Santa Clara province Brigadier General Bell ordered the Fifteenth cavalry to occupy Santa Clara, Esperanza, Cienfuegos Cruces and Santo Domingo, taking the places of the rural guard regiments, which will be released to pursue the marauders. This is in accordance with Governor Magoon's policy not to use United States troops in the suppression of disorders.

More than 11,000 people were imprisoned in England last year, the highest number since the outbreak of the war.

NEWARK MAN WITH A BROKEN NECK IS LIVING

ALONZO SOUSLIN'S CONDITION IS ATTRACTING WIDESPREAD ATTENTION.

HE FEELS VERY LITTLE PAIN

Is Lying in a Plaster Cast, So That He Can Not Move His Head or Shoulders.

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 27.—Alonzo Souslin, a former Newark grocer, is living here with a broken neck.

It isn't the ordinary kind of a break either, for physicians who have examined the injured man since the accident at the National Cash Register Works Tuesday morning, say it is a most unusual break, and that not in one case out of a possible hundred does a man so injured live.

But Mr. Souslin is still living, and at the Miami Valley hospital it is said that he is growing stronger day by day with each succeeding hour, is conscious, and that he will possibly live to leave the hospital and again walk the streets of Dayton; although, if he recovers, he will, of course, always have to wear a plaster cast or a brace about his neck.

Whether or not it is the ability of the attendants at the Miami Valley hospital to patch up a broken neck, does not pertain. It is sufficient to say that they have handled this unusual case admirably—the first case of its kind in the history of Dayton—and it would not be at all surprising if they do not turn out from the institution one of the few men that have lived with a broken neck.

Souslin's home in Baker road, near the Soldiers' Home, was visited by your correspondent. Mrs. Souslin, herself suffering with a disease that affects her eyes to such an extent that she cannot see, expected that news when she answered the news man's knock on the door, but felt encouraged when told that her husband had spent a comfortable night at the hospital and was stronger and better in every way than he has been since the accident happened. She visits him each day at the hospital twice, and like those who are carefully watching the case, she feels that there is certainly a chance for his recovery. She has been married to Mr. Souslin a little over three years and they have a wee bit of a boy, a little over a year old, that has reached the walking stage, and who played gleefully about his mother's skirts while she anxiously inquired as to the condition of the husband and father.

Dr. Herman, who has charge of the case, stated that he feels very much encouraged over the improvement shown by the patient, and says that he is confident that, with no untoward event, he can save the man's life. The physician states that it is the first case of the kind that has come to attention in this country, so far as he knows. He believes that nothing short of a miracle has saved the man's life so far. Dr. Herman has placed a plaster cast from the breast up, entirely covering the neck and shoulder muscles, and the patient is unable to move his head in the least. He is conscious all the time, and with the exception of feeling a few muscular pains about the neck, does not complain of suffering.

DUN'S REVIEW

Traffic Delays, High Money and Labor
Forest Check Commercial Progress on the Whole.

New York, Oct. 27.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says that traffic delays, high money and some unrest in the ranks of labor failed to check commercial progress on the whole, although in special industries of local as the remaining influence of the adverse factors were felt. Some commodities of importance, such as the weeks' trade in cotton, has a uniform glow of activity. The retail distribution, however, is not so active. It is more quiet and more hours in several industries, especially in the railway service. Agricultural manufacturers and dealers are making plans for the greatest business of record in jewelry and other goods. A further advance of about 50 cents per ton was made in the price of pig iron.

PRICE OF PORK

A well known butcher gives a plausible explanation of the reason why the price of hogs is so high. He says it is due to the large corn crop. At first sight this looks to be rather paradoxical, as one would naturally think that a big crop of corn would mean low price on porkers.

"All the farmers have a big corn crop and the price of grain is low. They want to feed it to their hogs, and as a result they are not willing to sell. In ordinary years the hog raisers turn their hogs off when they reach a weight of from 160 to 200 pounds, preferring to do this to feeding them to a larger size. This year, however, with a large corn crop, the farmers are holding their hogs and will feed them as long as they can see any profit in doing so, and as a result there is a scarcity of porkers in the packing houses and butcher shops."

While this is a true explanation doubtless it certainly means larger hogs and more and cheaper pork later in the season when these porkers are rushed into the market.

FREDONIA.

The old folks' meeting was a success, the oldest person present being "Grandma" Bishop. A fine sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Hart. Charles Willis has purchased a new home near Fredonia and is now removing to it.

Mrs. George Carpenter and Mrs. Ingalls are spending a few days in Jersey. Mrs. Clara Bowers and Mrs. Bett Town spent Thursday in Grinnell.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve dinner and supper in Fredonia.

There seems to be no diminution in the enthusiasm with which the public has always greeted the Rogers Bros. during their tour this season. They are appearing in the farce, "The Rogers Brothers in Ireland," and are, according to newspaper reports, receiving large audiences. Their farce is of the kind in which they always appear—of broad burlesque element.

The members of his family were not at home at the time, but neighbors assisted in removing Mr. Yost to the house. He may not recover. It is thought that he was injured internally.

Bowser Goes To the Club

Attends a Reception of the L. O. C. P.'s and Comes Home the Worse For Wear.

HAS TO MAKE A SPEECH

This Is Merely an Incident of the Evening, Which Proves Exacting to the Old Man.

"Tonight, 1906, by P. O. Eastment." "OUR church is giving an entertainment this evening," said Mrs. Bowser as Mr. Bowser reached home from the office the other evening, "and I have promised that we will both attend. There will be moving pictures, a lecture, ice cream, cake and so on."

"Sorry, my dear, but you will have to go alone," was the reply.

"But you haven't got an appointment, I hope?"

"That's just what I have got. The L. O. C. P.'s give a reception this evening in honor of three of the cabinet officers, and I wouldn't miss it for a fortune. In fact, I am on two of the committees."

"For goodness' sake, what club is that? I never heard you mention it before."

"I may have neglected to mention it, but I have belonged to the Lively Old

"HE DEPARTED AT 8 O'CLOCK."

Cockadoodledoo Patriots for a year past. It ranks as the leading social club in America. No one without a strain of Revolutionary blood in his veins can belong."

"But you haven't got any."

"What?" shouted Mr. Bowser as his face turned red in an instant. "I haven't gone around bragging about my blood, as some folks do, Mrs. Bowser, but I'd have you to understand that I had no less than three relatives in the war for independence. You may have incidentally heard of General Putnam, Paul Jones and John Hancock."

Wife Was Skeptical.

"It's very funny that if those men were any relation to the Bowsters you haven't let it out long ago. I don't believe they were. I don't believe there was a Bowser in the war. If there were any Bowsters ever here then, they were buying furs or keeping groceries."

Mrs. Bowser was disappointed at not attending the church entertainment and spoke with feeling. For a moment Mr. Bowser was stunned. Her words were more than sacrilegious. He gasped for breath as his knees trembled under him, and then whispered:

"Woman, if a man on the street had insulted the Bowsters in that fashion I would have stretched him dead at my feet! His story would have told you long ago, had you read it, that no family in America sacrificed more for independence than the Bowsters. Who led at Lundy's Lane, Cowpens and King's Mountain? Who guided Washington across the Delaware? Who led the charge at Saratoga? You can find your sarcasm at me, Mrs. Bowser, but by the thirty thousand thunder of thirty thousand earthquakes, don't you attempt to belittle my ancestors!"

"Well, I'll stay home, and you can go to your club, and I hope you will have a pleasant time," answered Mrs. Bowser as she turned away.

Dropped the Subject.

Mr. Bowser did not pursue the subject further. He wanted to, but the thought flashed across his mind that it would be just his style to get down the "History of America" after he had left the house and try to find where the Bowsters came in. She wouldn't be able to even find their names mentioned and might reopen the subject again. When the time came she offered to help him get ready, but he waved her aside. He saw a bad part of his hair, a bad knot in his tie and his vest was buttoned up without regard to programme, but she let him go without remark. She didn't think that the Cockadoodledoo Old Patriots, on any field, would be very particular about how their shoestrings were tied.

"It may be 2 o'clock in the morning when I get in," he said.

"Very well. If you can't find the house some policeman will probably know you. Give my love to the cabinet officers."

"Woman!"

But he could say no more. He had sat down on her hard, and yet he had the feeling that she had the best of him. He went off with his cane and silk hat and patent leather shoes, and she sat down to read. He departed at 8, and it was half past 11 when the doorbell rang. She opened it to find a boy on the step. He pointed to Mr. Bowser sitting on the lowest step and whispered:

"I found him hugging a shade tree and telling how the Bowsters licked the British. I know him, and so I brought him home. I'll help you up the steps with him."

Bowser's Legs Wobbled.

Mr. Bowser's legs wobbled, and his head kept bobbing, but he was got into the house and deposited in a chair. Mrs. Bowser wanted to give the boy a quarter, but he backed off and said:

"I couldn't think of it, ma'am. We all know what a hard time you have with him and are sorry for you."

When he had departed she got out the camphor and smelling salts and let Mr. Bowser sniff and huffed his face. In a few minutes he rallied sufficiently to ask:

"Is this you, Mrs. Bowser?"

"Yes, dear."

"Is this my home—my dear old home?"

"Yes."

"Well, I wonder tell you all about it. Shy, they made a fool of me. Yesh, shy, they made a fool of me."

"You can tell me all about it in the morning. We will be going up to bed now."

"No, we won't. I won't go to bed till I tell you all about it. If I do I'll bust. You know, I went to a reception given by the L. O. C. P.'s."

"You said it was the L. O. C. P.'s?"

"Did I? Whish that?"

"The Lively Old Cockadoodledoo Patriots."

"Oh, yesh. What did I go for?"

"The club was to entertain three members of the president's cabinet, and I suppose it did so."

He Was Only Guest.

"No, I didn't, Mrs. Bowser—no, it didn't. That was all a lie. It just entertained me, and I'll live 10,000 years to get revenge. Think of the way they used your poor husband, Mrs. Bowser; think of it!"

Mr. Bowser began to weep, and it was five minutes before he could be quieted. The camphor rubbed on the back of his neck finally aided him to control his emotions, and he went on:

"There wasn't any cabinet officers there. Wasn't nobody there 'cept a lot of fellows who wanted shone fun. They made me drink seven cocktails."

"Not seven, Mr. Bowser."

"Seven great big cocktails, my dear, and when my head began to swim they made me try to turn handsprings. Think of Mr. Bowser turning handsprings!"

"And what else?" asked Mrs. Bowser as she and the cat smiled at each other.

"Made me hop around on one foot. Shaid I was hopping after the British at Trenton. Think of your husband hopping around a room and everybody yelling!"

"It was awful, Mr. Bowser. What happened next?"

Had to Make a Speech.

"They said I must make a speech. I told 'em I wanted to come home to my dear wife, but they only roared and squirted water on me—me, Mr. Bowser."

"And then what?"

"They said I was no patriot, but that my grandfather sold embalmed beef to the American army. I denied it and called 'em liars, and then they threw flour in my face and made me jump over chairs and swear to eat the constitution of er Cuited Shaltats."

At this recollection Mr. Bowser had another crying spell, during which the cat meowed in sympathy and the night breezes moaned dismally. When he had recovered Mrs. Bowser suggested bed, and he rose up to try it. His legs doubled under him, however, and he sank down on the floor and a minute later was asleep. She brought a pillow and a quilt to make him comfortable for the night and then turned the gas low and left the Lively Old Cockadoodledoo Patriot to his sleep and his dreams.

You Never Can Tell.

"Well," remarked the amateur student of human nature, "you can be pretty sure that the woman who doesn't gush over a pretty baby is a confirmed old maid."

"Not at all," replied the wise man.

Snarl of Envy.

"Meeker's good luck seems to be coming in bunches," remarked Enspeck as he laid aside his paper.

"How's that?" queried Mrs. Enspeck.

"He has just got $5,000 from a man who has alienated his wife's affections," replied Enspeck.—Detroit Tribune.

AMUSEMENTS

THE MERRY MILKMAIDS.

The first performance of "The Merry Milkmaids," the operetta given for the benefit of St. Paul's Choral Society at the Auditorium, took place Friday night before a large audience and was one of the best amateur productions given here in a long time, reflecting much credit upon the directing ability of J. H. Randall, who is putting the piece on for the society.

The principals of the cast were all good, very few of the common amateur blunders being noticeable in the work of any of the soloists.

Mrs. Bertha Dooney Roe took the honors as "Queen," carrying her part through without the slightest hesitation or faultiness. Miss Mabel Glenn, in being cast for the part of "Dorothy," was given an excellent opportunity to sing well and act well and she made use of the opportunity most readily. One of the most unfortunate circumstances of the evening was the fact that Prof. Walter W. Flora, who was to have appeared in the leading male role, "Farmer Jim," contracted a very severe cold, and being unable to sing, was seen only in the finale. The part was taken by Mr. Randall with very good effect. E. Herve Reynolds as "Der Doctor," Dr. E. L. Lichtig as "the Commodore in the disguise of a beggar," Mr. Lee Gamble as the Commodore, Ben Hoover as the "dead old judge," and Miss Eleanor Place as the gypsy, "Mother Monica," each did splendidly in the parts assigned them. Miss Nellie Turner and Miss Eva Duer also both deserve special mention.

The Merry Milk Maids will again be seen at the Auditorium tonight.

ESRA KENDALL COMING.

Esra Kendall was talking to an old friend who had at one time aspired to become an actor.

"Tell me, friend," said Kendall,

ESRA KENDALL,

why you gave up your theatrical career."

"I'll tell you, Esra. 'Tis a sad story. I started out to make my name in the profession about the same time as you did. The first company that I started with stranded several miles from home, and it was mighty hard walking back. I started again. The only consolation I had was that the scenery was different. I was ready to give up and had decided to go to work in a grocery store, when I was offered a fine part in a big show. You can imagine my joy. Well, the opening night came, and I was confident of success.

"To get to the point: I was working up to a big climax; the audience seemed spell-bound, and I had just delivered the last lines, which were sure to bring forth enthusiastic applause, when the steam pipes broke and hissed me off the stage."

Esra Kendall and his company in the greatest comedy success this year, "Swell Elegant Jones," will visit Newark, Wednesday, Oct. 31.

GREAT MUSICAL EVENT.

One of the greatest musical events in the history of Columbus will be at Memorial Hall, next Tuesday evening, Oct. 30, when Leoncavallo, with his grand orchestra of 65 performers and ten vocal artists from La Scala theatre, Milan, Italy, will appear in a magnificent program of the maestro's works, including "Pagliacci" and other numbers.

The program is under the auspices of the Columbus Symphony Orchestra. Prices, $2, $1.50, $1 and 50c. Seats are now selling at Goldsmith's, 74 North High street, Columbus.

AUDITORIUM NOV. 1.

The patron of the theatre, who witnesses a performance that is most pleasing and instructive, has no idea of the labor, thought and expense attending the production before him. In fact, little credit is given the manager for exercising any business acumen, the belief being that the plans of plays that are produced are arranged a few weeks beforehand, and for the time being the future is not thought of. Little does the observer know, however, that all plans for this or that presentation were fully consummated over a year before, and the manager can tell where the piece will be presented for the two coming years. Also, the proprietorship or right to play for a stipulated royalty, forms a prominent part of the business department. The sole right to produce a successful play on the road is considered a valuable piece of property, and does not belong to the star who is appearing in the leading role, as is the general impression. An incident served to demonstrate this recently, relative to "When Knighthood Was In Flower." Miss Grace Merritt, an actress of great ability and prominence, approached Julia Marlowe, the original Mary Tudor in the New York production, with a view of securing the rights of the piece, offering her $5000 for that concession. To her surprise she was informed that the sole rights belonged to Mr. Ernest Shipman. This astute manager, recognizing Miss Merritt's special fitness for the role of Mary Tudor, being thoroughly familiar with the work she had done, an arrangement was soon made whereby Miss Merritt will star this season under his direction in "When Knighthood Was In Flower." Miss Merritt comes to Newark November 1.

THE ORPHIUM.

Next week's bill at the Orphium theatre consists of some of the highest class acts in vanderbilt, with such well known people as Harlan and Rollison, comedy musical artists; St. Julian, the world's greatest bag puncher; Gaylor and Graff, refined sketch artists; Patchin, and Clifton, singers and dancers; new illustrated songs and 1000 feet of new motion pictures. The people of Newark should turn out and visit the Orphium. The theatre is up to date, the prices are right, and the performance is clean and refined. Matinee daily at 3 p. m., evenings at 7:30 and 9. Get the habit.

GREAT SOUTHERN THEATRE.

Opening the week of October 29, the Great Southern theatre, Columbus, will offer what has achieved a position of a leading and standard musical production, "The Gingerbread Man." This piece has now been on the road for three seasons, and continues to retain the popularity that greeted it when it was first offered. The production will be at the Great

VIRGINIA HARNED IN FRENCH FARCE.

MRS. VIRGINIA HARNED IN "THE LOVE LETTER" AT THE LYRIC.

Miss Virginia Harned's reappearance on the New York stage was made in the Lyric Theatre in a comedy called "The Love Letter."

For two acts this typical French farce proved diverting. It offered the star a suitable and not exacting role, handling of a role that required some scope to some capital work by deft touches to make telling.

GRACE MERRITT.
"When Knighthood Was In Flower."

Southern Monday and Tuesday evenings, October 29 and 30.

Wednesday, October 31, another standard musical comedy offering will be given at the Southern. This is none other than the now famous "Prince of Pilsen." This is its sixth year on the road, and the demand for it is as large as ever. Two of the chief things that contribute to its success are its remarkably good music and the big number of splendid vocal selections.

Thursday, November 1, Esra Kendall, the comedian who perhaps uses an individual manner more than any other one now before the public, will appear at the Southern in his new play, "Swell Elegant Jones." Friday and Saturday, November 2 and 3, will be offered one of the leading and most impressive productions of the season—Wilton Lackaye in "The Law and the Man," a dramatization of "Les Miserables." This is a version which Mr. Lackaye himself has prepared. It represents four years of effort on his part, and for one year his manager, Mr. William A. Brady, has been having the scenery built. The fact that "Les Miserables" is one of the classics of the world's literature and is familiar to all persons who read, will create a wide interest in this production. There are over thirty speaking parts in "The Law and the Man," and Mr. Lackaye is said to have a strong company supporting him.

CURRENT THEATRE NEWS.

James Forbes, author of "The Chorus Lady," in which Rose Stahl is achieving one of the greatest successes of the year, is at work on a new play for Robert Edison. After reading the scenario, Mr. Edison had such faith in this new piece that he has made no arrangements to secure any other for use next season.

Louis James is presenting "Merry Wives of Windsor" with the greatest success throughout the East. Mr. James' Falstaff has long been known as one of the most satisfactory interpretations of that role of the modern stage. Mr. James will extend his tour through the Middle West before the season closes.

Without doubt one of the greatest personal successes of the season is that of Henrietta Crossman in "All-Of-A-Sudden-Posy." City after city have become enthusiastic over her depiction of the rollicking heroine of this piece. From this comment, the piece must be one of the most entertaining comedies of the year.

"The Man From Now," the musical comedy by John Kendrick Bangs, in which Harry Barker is starring, has won much favor from the Chicago public. It was designated by James O'Donnell Bennett of the Chicago Record Herald, as a "showy, tuneful and comical entertainment."

For its fourth season, Geo. Ade's "The College Widow" is on the road and is proving as popular as ever with the public. J. W. Savage, the manager owning the production, has provided it again with a first class company, which to a certain degree provides for some measure of its permanent favor.

Robert & Company announce that they have secured a special rural route to Cape Cod, Mass., this province and vicinity have been offering in season for some weeks. The approval of the route was given by the Cape Cod and Mass. Co. have decided to take a tour to New York, where they will open on Monday. The price and service are excellent. Tickets when shown to be available, and when shown upon a reservation in Boston.

Upon Sunday Mr. S. announces that he will appear in the dramatization of "The Jungle," which is to be brought out shortly. He says he will only remain with it for this season.

son, as he has planned to devote next year to his socialistic enterprises.

Henry Waterson, of the Louisville Courier Journal, has grown so enthusiastic over Wilton Lackaye's offering of "Les Miserables" in dramatic form that he has accorded the production an editorial from his own pen. He commends it highly, declaring it is a pity that more productions of the day, permeated by so much humanity, are not offered the public. Mr. Lackaye has entitled his dramatization "Law and the Man."

Clyde Fitch's newest play, "Truth," in which Clara Bloodgood is to appear this season, will have its first presentation in Cleveland. Public expectation is said to this drama has been aroused to a great pitch, inasmuch as both Mrs. Bloodgood and Mr. Fitch insist that it is the dramatist's greatest achievement. The theme concerns the present day American tendency to stretch every effort to acquire money and close the eyes to the means employed.

It has just been declared that Wagner and Kemper have decided to write their production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," in which they are offering Annie Russell at the Astor theatre, in New York, on the road some time this spring. The great favor which the New York public has extended to this production has convinced them that it will be equally enjoyed by the public in the other cities. Miss Russell bears the distinction of being the only player able to invest this work of Shakespeare with the charm that compels patronage from the public.

The return of Madame Modjeska to the stage is to be made within a few weeks, when she will start her tour by an engagement in New York. She will cling to her standard repertoire of classic pieces, which includes the plays in which she reaches her greatest impersonations, "Macbeth" and "Mary Stuart." Madame Modjeska has declared to a newspaper reporter that she has undergone the same experience that Joseph Jefferson and other prominent actors who attempted to retire from the stage, did, that is, she is unable to remain away. Hence she says she will continue to act as long as her strength permits. She has sold her ranch in California, and will hereafter reside near New York.

In "The Galloper," Richard Harding Davis's comedy, which Raymond Hitchcock is now offering on the road, that comedian is said to advance himself much as an actor of refined and legitimate methods. The part he impersonates is that of a young American, who assumes the role of a war correspondent during a war in foreign parts. This disguise places him in some very embarrassing positions. Mr. Hitchcock is said to portray this with a drollness which is irresistible.

A new musical comedy has been obtained by Frank Daniels, who, however, refuses to disclose what its title or subject is. He says he will not make a production of it until some time in January.

SELECTIONS

LONDON MUSIC HALLS.

W. T. Stead Calls the Performances "Drivel For the Drags."

"If I had to sum up the whole performance in a single phrase I should say, 'Drivel for the drags'—only that and nothing more."

In this terse sentence W. T. Stead, writing in the Review of Reviews, condenses his impressions after witnessing a full performance at a London music hall.

"My first impression," he says, "was one of unutterable boredom. For three and a half solid hours I sat patiently listening to the most insufferable banality and ineptitude that ever fell upon human ears."

"My second impression, which naturally followed upon the boredom, was one of wrathful indignation. It seemed intolerable that in Anno Domini 1906 the heirs of a thousand years of civilization and the product of thirty-five years of the education act should relish this inane drivel."

"It was not the immorality of the thing that caused me so much as the ineptitude of it all. Undertaken parties at country fairs used to find it amusing to grin at each other through horses' collars. It would be more appropriate if the audience of last night had been fitted with the headgear of a lumber and less intelligent congregate of the horse."

"My third impression was the absence, with one or two exceptions, of anything beautiful or melodious. There was not a haunting melody or a simple air in the whole jingle-jangle of vain sounds. And always, with one great exception and two small ones, there was a positive reveling in physical ugliness and ungraceful motion and poses. It is not funny. It is simply disgusting."

Coins of Gilded Glass.

Forty members of a large coiners' syndicate have been arrested in Paris. Hotel clerks have been their special prey. Dressed as well to do foreigners, they sometimes walked boldly into a hotel, rendered spurious gold for exchange and not infrequently complained of the rates of exchange. It was the practice of the gang to offer genuine French gold with the spurious, three or four counterfeit being mixed up in a handful of genuine coin. The spurious pieces are mostly 1836 and 1847 ten franc pieces, with the effigy of Napoleon III, and also the latest type of 1905 Republican twenty franc coins. These are admirably made. In fact, never before have spurious coins been produced to such perfection. They are made of crystal, heated to 900 degrees and cast in molds. Then by a galvanoplastic process they have been covered with a thin coating of real gold. They have the appearance, finish, weight and sound of real coins if thrown on wood or marble. The fraud can be detected if the coin is sounded on a brass or metal counter.

The Magnetic Needle.

That Columbus was not, as is popularly supposed, the first to note the declination of the magnetic needle has recently been graphically demonstrated by the discovery of the sun dials, dating from a time anterior to Columbus' first voyage and bearing on the compasses accompanying them lines indicating the declination of the needle. One of these, found at Jansbrunn, was constructed at Nuremberg in 1451. Not only has it an engraved line indicating the declination at the time of its construction, but other lines showing the changes of direction undergone by the needle in subsequent years. Who first noted the declination of the needle is still an unsettled question.—Youth's Companion.

Chinese Paper Fans.

The almost universal use of fans in many parts of China gives rise to an important industry. In Nanking some 30,000 or 40,000 people are employed in the work of making paper fans. Hardly any machinery except that of the simplest kind is used at present, but enterprising foreigners are investigating the possibility of supplanting hand work by machinery. Doubtless machines would reduce the demand for fanmakers to less than a hundred, but there are now thousands employed in Nanking, but what would happen to the displaced thousands? That is the burning question in China.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Roosevelt's Strenuous Life.

If the account is correct, the strenuousness and the astounding vitality of President Roosevelt have been expressed by no one with more aptness than by his own wife. A man in Washington was trying to secure a plaster cast of the president's face. "How long would it take to make the cast?" Mrs. Roosevelt asked. "Twenty minutes," was the reply. "That settles it," answered Mrs. Roosevelt. "No human power could induce my husband to remain so for twenty minutes."—Los Angeles Weekly.

The Obstinate Poles.

German authorities are finding the Polish school children in the eastern provinces to be more than their match. Those children who resist the efforts of the teachers to compel them to speak German during religious instruction are hailed as heroes, and other children are fired to emulate their example. "One little fellow who was laid over a chair by two teachers and soundly 'strapped' for disobedience cried out, 'You may whip me as much as you like, but you will not force me to pray in German!'"

LOGAN STRIKES BIG GAS GUSHER

WELL ON WELLER FARM NEAR DRY HOLES REPORTED AT ALMOST 12 MILLIONS.

When First Drilled In It Showed Seven Millions, But At Once Increased.

Mr. Vernon, Oct. 27.—The Logan company drilled in one of the largest wells in the field Thursday afternoon on the Stewart Weller farm, 1 1/2 miles northeast of Bangs. On Thursday evening the well was reported to have a capacity of 7,000,000. Friday it was stated that the pressure had increased greatly after the well had cleaned itself and that the gauge indicated not less than 11,500,000 cubic feet of gas per day.

At the time gas first commenced to show any strength a workman at the well was on top of the derrick. Before he could climb down there was a shower of rocks and he was struck by a number of these. One large piece of stone struck him on the forehead and inflicted an ugly gash.

While there are a number of wells in that part of Liberty township it is a strange fact that two wells nearest the Weller was practically dry.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. V. Williams, a well known merchant of Bae, Ky. He writes, "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by F. D. Hall Druggist, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

THE LITTLE MAID'S WASH DRESS.

The heavier of the linen pieces, and some of the flannel-lined cotton ones, too, for that matter, will maintain all of their modishness for many years right through the winter months. Such warmer clothing as may be necessary to be provided in the underwear, which is almost invariably nowadays of the one-piece or union order.

The imported model that forms the subject of illustration is in a heavy linen pique and is fashioned all in one piece, if one accepts the shield front, which is removable. Deep pleats in the shoulder seams provide fullness, and the fastening is effected right in itself.

front, double-breasted, the handsome pearl buttons making for quite some trimming effect. The broad sailor collar is elaborately embroidered all by hand, in several sizes of white linen boss, a conventionalized chrysanthemum pattern forming the design and working prettily into the scalloped buttonhole edge. Just his latter edge appears on the turnover cut that finishes the smartly full sleeve, while the shield and its full collar are left absolutely without adornment. The strap belt that is posed low on the waistline is cut in a semicircular shape, the buttons here meeting those on the dress in itself.

OFFICER CALLAN GETS GREEN MACE

Officer James Callan, who boasts proudly of his Irish blood in his veins, now owns a mace which is a real Irish club. He asked a friend a few days ago to make him a good mace. The friend, being a woodworker, soon turned out a handsome stick from a piece of well seasoned hickory.

Knowing that Officer Callan was proud of his ancestry, the woodworker stained the stick a beautiful shamrock green. The club was presented to the officer at roll call on Thursday night, and he at once put the mace into commission and carried it over his head, where he proudly exhibited it to his friends.

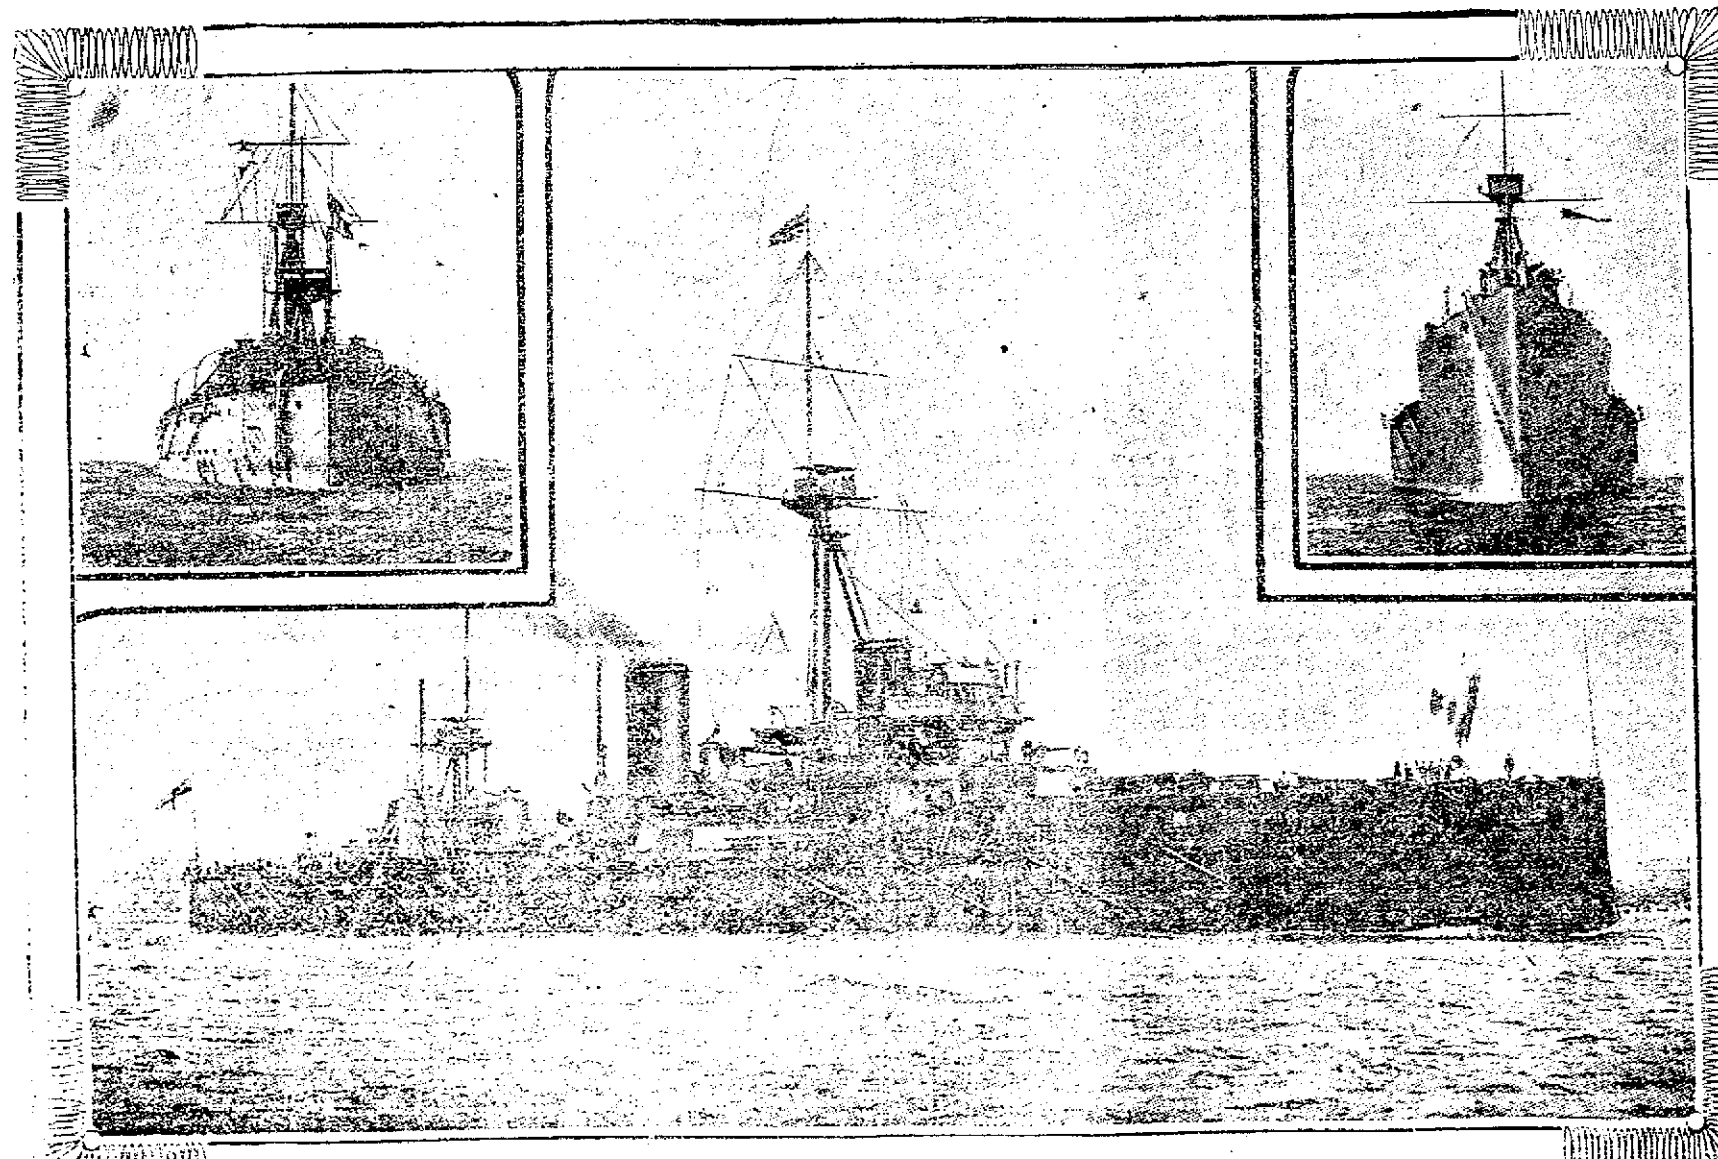

As a warning, it might be well to state that the weight of the club is greater than most officers' maces, and for this reason it would be best for the unfortunate who calls into Callan's hands to accompany him peacefully, for the club is surely capable of producing a very severe headache.

The trial of Thomas Cline, who was charged with driving Murray & Saffel's horse until it fell and broke its neck, developed the fact that there was a difference of opinion among the farmers, at least in the Flint Ridge territory, as to what constitutes running, galloping or loping. There the three gaits of a horse mean the same thing. The attorneys in the case scraped considerably on this subject, some holding that if the horse was loping or galloping, there was no abuse. No witness who could give expert testimony on the subject was present.

GIANT BATTLESHIPS GIVE ENGLAND TEN YEARS' LEAD.

THE BRITISH NAVY'S GIANT BATTLESHIP, H.M.S. 'DREADNOUGHT,' WHICH MARKS A REVOLUTION IN NAVAL CONSTRUCTION.

London, Oct. 27.—Amazement universal and military schools of thought of indignation was evoked throughout the country at the suggestion to stop the building of one of the proposed secret building of three huge, swift and powerful battle ships for the British Navy. It is a fact that the three mysterious "armored cruisers" now approaching completion on the Clyde and at Elswick, and being too far advanced to preserve the secret any longer, are not cruisers at all, but battleships every bit as powerful as those of the Dreadnought type, and a great deal faster.

SKATING PARTY

For Monday Night Promises To Be An Unique Affair—Souvenirs Will Be Given To Skaters.

Unique decorations will be one of the many features at the Halloween Skating party to be given at the Palace Rink on Monday night next. A force of eight men will be at work at the rink all day Monday and the result will be probably the most uniquely decorated interior ever seen in Newark. The scheme will be in keeping with the season of the year, and the spirit of Halloween will reign supreme. A splendid program has been prepared, and an evening's enjoyment of a decidedly "different" nature is in waiting for all. The souvenirs that will be given each patron will be found well worth the having and the one selected for the ladies is a tallman without a peer and guaranteed to keep the recipient from harm's way for an indefinite period. Arrangements are being made for special car service for Monday night, and as in the past the patrons may look forward to everything being done for the pleasure and comfort.
